"POWER RANGERS D.A.T.A. TREK: EPISODE 20 - GREAT POWER"

FADE IN:

INT. THE COFFEE SHOP - DAY

The shop is completely shut down as PAUL is rearranging some of the furniture to be positioned around the new 50" plasma TV that is hanging on the wall across from the counter. A JPop music station is on the screen, and a music video is playing.

MALE JPOP SINGER ON TV

A knocking is heard at the front door, and Paul turns off the TV. He then goes over to the door and opens it up. MARK, EDDIE, RACHEL, and KIA are on the other side, and they enter. Eddie looks at the TV, stands in one place, and his jaw drops in awe of it. Paul, Mark, Rachel, and Kia walk over to the front of the counter. Mark glances at the TV quickly.

MARK
 What's with the TV?

PAUL
 Just a little present.

RACHEL From who?

PAUL
 Uncle Dario. You know no matter how many times I say that it still doesn't sound right. Anyway we also got a new satellite dish with like five hundred channels on it.

Paul looks over at Eddie, and walks over to him. Paul pushes Eddie's chin up to close his mouth. Paul walks back over to Mark, Rachel, and Kia.

KIA

So how you've been holding up?

PAUL

I'm a big boy now Kia. I can handle living on my own now that Isabel's married, and living with Dario.

RACHEL

So you've gotten over the effects of Tigras' fog?

PAUL

Pretty much, although the option to live with Isabel and Dario was on the table. But I turned it down because there was no way I was going to put up with newlyweds.

MARK

So what are you doing about upstairs?

PAUL

With Isabel's stuff moved out, I put my bed in her old room, and I've been doing some redecorating.

KIA

The apartment was fine the way it was.

MARK

Yeah, as a girl's apartment I'm sure Paul's going to turn it into quite the bachelor pad. Am I right?

PAUL

You forgot one thing. It'll be reeking of dude in about a week.

MARK

You're right. And I knew I forgot something.

PAUL

Anyway, I think it might be a good idea to get Eddie out of his little trance in the sight of the TV.

Paul walks back over to Eddie.

PAUL

You're fired.

EDDIE

What?

PAUL

Just kidding. We needed to get you out your TV staring session.

EDDIE

So you've got like five hundred channels, right?

PAUL

(sighs) Here.

Paul hands the remote to Eddie. A new JPop music video is on.

FEMALE JPOP SINGER

Saikyou no LEGEND minogasu na/tsuite koreru nara...

Eddie changes the channel quickly.

MARK

JPop Paul?

PAUL

What's wrong with JPop?

MARK

Nothing.

Eddie flips through the channels quickly, checking out each one in a split second.

KIA

Eddie, you're going too fast with the channels.

RACHEL

Kia please, he's just like every other guy with a remote in hand.

PAUL

So what do we want to do today?

KIA

I think we all know what Eddie wants to do.

MARK

I just realized something.

RACHEL

What?

MARK

None of us have really played D.A.T.A. Trek since we became Rangers.

KIA

You know you're right. I don't even know where my stats disk is anymore.

PAUL

I know mine's lying on my desk somewhere upstairs.

MARK

Go get it. I've got mine on me.

Paul heads to the entrance to the apartment, and enters. Moments later he comes back down, with his stats disk in hand. Paul and Mark then go over to the D.A.T.A. Trek game and sit down; Paul on the right, Mark on the left. They both insert their disks into the slots. They take to the controls and the game begins. The Black Ranger in the game starts out by firing a few shots from his D.A.T.A. Blaster. The Red Ranger jumps up to dodge the attacks. While still in the air the Red Ranger draws his D.A.T.A. Blaster and fires a few shots at the Black Ranger that make contact, but do not do that much damage. The Black Ranger draws his Mach Hammer, and hits the Red Ranger as he lands. The hits from the Hammer takes a good chunk of life from the Red Ranger's health bar, and the Red Ranger falls to the ground. The Red Ranger then gets up and takes out his Grapple Staff in Tri-mode. The Red Ranger charges at the Black Ranger, and once he is near the Black Ranger he starts to slash at the Black Ranger with the bladed end of his Staff. The slashing takes out a great amount of the Black Ranger's health bar. Eventually the Black Ranger breaks free from the slashing, but the time runs out with the Red Ranger having more of a health bar than the Black Ranger.

PAUL

Looks like my skills haven't faded.

MARK

You know, what you said when we first became Rangers is true. There's no comparison, being a Ranger is so much better than playing the game.

The stats on the game's imaging come up and Paul and Mark look for their rankings. Neither of them is in the top 5.

PAUL

Looks like we're no longer on top.

MARK

Well it's not like we've been playing to keep our scores up.

PAUL

True.

Paul and Mark take notice on the player who is in the top position, a person by the screen name of "RaveSiren". However Paul takes a greater interest in the silver-colored Ranger picture that is beside RaveSiren's name.

MARK

Looks like this RaveSiren guy is on top now.

PAUL

I'm a little more concerned with his character. I didn't know that there was a Silver Ranger in the game.

MARK

Weren't there only five Rangers when we first started to play?

PAUL

Yeah. Maybe Doc added this new character.

MARK

Well there is one way to find out.

PAUL

You're right, and it's about time we paid him a visit.

FADE OUT. OPENING CREDITS.

FADE IN:

INT. THE INVENTING ROOM AT D.A.T.A. BASE - DAY

DOC stands at a workbench working on a blue-colored weapon that resembles a cross between a metal detector, and a blaster. Doc puts the finishing touches on the weapon, and holds it up.

DOC
Perfect, everything's falling into place. Now if only I had a Ranger suit design.

PAUL'S VOICE
Doc?

DOC
I'm in the inventing room.

Paul and Mark enter the inventing room. Doc sets the weapon down.

PAUL
We've got a question for you.

DOC Sure.

MARK
Did you add another Ranger character to the D.A.T.A. Trek game?

DOC
What do you mean?

PAUL
We were playing it a few minutes ago, and the player who's on top had a Ranger pic that was different from the main five.

DOC
I haven't done anything like that. Let's check this out.

Doc leads Paul and Mark out of the inventing room, and into the monitoring room. Doc goes up to one of the computer terminals.

DOC
What's the player's name?

PAUL

RaveSiren. The "r" on "rave" is in capitals, it's the same with the "s" on "siren", and there's no space.

Doc enters "RaveSiren" into the computer and the player's profile is brought up with a full body shot of his Ranger character. The character is in silver and black, with an orange stripe separating the silver and black. The accents on the top of the Ranger's boots and gloves are in a metallic blue, and orange bands are around his wrists. The shoulder pads are also in metallic blue, but with sirens imbedded into them. The Ranger's helmet is silver with two small sirens, small headlights, and an antenna sticking out of the top. The same compass symbol as the other Ranger suits is on this Ranger's chest.

DOC

(muttering under his breath) Why didn't I think of that?

MARK

What'd you say?

DOC

Never mind. But I didn't add the character. In fact his stats say that he's the Red Ranger.

PAUL

Then who did?

DOC

More than likely somebody hacked into the game's system and created that Ranger design. Kind of like a skin on a media player.

MARK

Is something like that even possible?

DOC

I would've thought otherwise, but I guess we're dealing with a hacker who could pretty much get into anything. Although, I think I might get in contact with this person.

MARK

Why?

DOC

I won't lie to you. I've been working on a new morpher, a new weapon, and three new Trekkers for a new Ranger to use. But unfortunately I haven't been able to think of a design for the suit.

PAUL

So what does everything look like?

DOC

You've all ready seen the morpher Paul when you and Kia were in the inventing room after you faced the Onkyoukai monster, and the weapon is what you probably saw me working on when you came into the inventing room today.

MARK

And the Trekkers?

DOC

These are the new Rescue Trekkers, Fire 11, Aider 12, and Police 13. They combine into the Blast Megazord.

PAUL

Why rescue vehicles?

DOC

It's just a throwback to my days at Lightspeed. But if the two of you don't mind I have some testing I need to do.

Paul and Mark walk out of the monitoring room.

MARK

So we're getting a new Ranger, huh?

PAUL

I think the bigger question is, who's this RaveSiren guy?

FADE OUT.

FADE IN:

INT. A BEDROOM - DAY

Very little natural light is seeping through the windows, which has dark curtains covering it. In fact the only light in the room comes from an LCD computer monitor that is sitting on a desk. SCOTT enters the room carrying his laptop. Scott sets the laptop down on his desk a few inches away from the monitor. Scott sits down at his desk and loads up a video game editing program. Scott takes to his mouse and keyboard and does some work with the program for while, until finally hitting the "F2" button on his keyboard. The screen changes to the title screen of game Scott was working on, and Scott picks up a control device for the game. Scott starts the game, and the screen changes to a jungle setting with a nineteenth century style adventurer as the playable character. Scott plays for a while, but after a few seconds the screen freezes, until reverting back to game editor.

SCOTT

Great, still too many bugs in the coding.

Scott closes the game editor and opens up another program. Scott does some frantic typing on his keyboard, until the D.A.T.A. compass symbol appears on screen. Scott does a little more typing and the silver-colored Ranger appears on his screen with the screen name "RaveSiren".

SCOTT

What else do I need to do to this thing? Let's see you skinned the Red Ranger character. You edited your score to be on top. You edited that pikapix58 guy's score to be the bottom of the barrel. There shouldn't be anything else you need to do.

Scott types a little more and loads up his Ranger's weapons. The Grapple Staff appears as well as the D.A.T.A. Blaster. Scott notices that the Grapple Staff is in red.

SCOTT

I knew I forgot something.

Scott frantically types again, and the Grapple Staff's color changes from red to the same metallic blue color as his Ranger's shoulder pads.

SCOTT

There everything matches.

Scott gets up and goes over to the bar fridge that is at the foot of his bed. He opens the fridge up and takes out a red and silver colored can, with two blue rockets facing each other over a yellow circle that is marked "BLUE ROCKET ENERGY DRINK". Scott opens the can and takes a sip.

SCOTT

Let's see is there anything else you need to do?

Scott checks his watch.

SCOTT

Might as well go out for a while.

Scott goes over to his desk, and grabs his D.A.T.A. Trek stats disk. He then leaves the room.

FADE OUT.

FADE IN:

INT. THE COFFEE SHOP - DAY

Eddie is still flipping through the channels on the TV. Rachel and Kia are sitting at a table with cappuccinos in front of them.

RACHEL

Are you sure Paul won't mind if we do this?

KIA

He probably would've done it anyway if he were here.

Paul and Mark enter the shop. Paul looks over at the table Kia and Rachel are sitting at.

PAUL

And who said you could make cappuccinos?

KIA

Is there a problem?

PAUL

Nah, I'm just messing with you.

RACHEL

So did you guys figure out what you needed to with Doc?

MARK

He didn't add the Ranger.

PAUL

In fact that RaveSiren guy probably hacked into the game's programming, and created it.

EDDIE

Did you say "RaveSiren"?

PAUL

Yeah, why?

EDDIE

I know him.

RACHEL

You do?

EDDIE

He's in a couple of my programming classes. His name's Scott Sterling, and he claims that there's nothing he can't hack into.

MARK

Anything else we should know about him?

EDDIE

Not really beyond the fact that he's also trying to become a game designer. And that he's been trying to ask Julia out for some time, but got shot down every time.

RACHEL

I bet when you first asked her out that must've been a blow to his ego.

EDDIE

He's tried to start some meaningless rivalry with me. Kinda like what you and Dragos have going on Paul.

Scott enters the shop. Paul turns around and sees him.

PAUL

I'm sorry, but we're closed for the next two weeks.

SCOTT

Okay.

Scott turns his head and sees Eddie, as well as a copy of the game.

SCOTT

Morita, what are you doing here?

EDDIE

First of all I work here, and secondly I'm sure Paul doesn't mind me being here Sterling.

MARK

Wait a minute (points to Scott) that's that Scott guy you were talking about?

SCOTT

Talking about me behind my back Morita?

EDDIE

They only wanted know about you and your screen name online.

SCOTT

What's it to you what my screen name is?

PAUL

I was playing D.A.T.A. Trek earlier and noticed that you're on the top of the ranking, which used to be where I was.

SCOTT

So you're pikapix58? What do you say about a little battle?

PAUL

(sighs) Fine.

Paul and Scott go over to the game and sit down. Paul is on the right, and Scott is on the left. They insert their stats disks into the slots and their characters load up Paul with the Red Ranger, and Scott with his "Silver Ranger".

PAUL

I gotta know, what's the deal with that?

SCOTT

This is the Siren Ranger. I was able to hack into the game's system and skinned the Red Ranger character. Now are we going to do this or not?

Paul and Scott take to the controls, and the game begins. The Red Ranger charges at the Siren Ranger, and unleashes a barrage of punches on him. The Siren Ranger jumps up to dodge the attack. The Siren Ranger also draws his D.A.T.A. Blaster and fires a few shots at the Red Ranger. The Red Rangers takes the hits and loses some of his health bar. The Siren Ranger lands, draws his Grapple Staff in Tri-mode and charges at the Red Ranger slashing at him. The Siren Ranger does this in such a way that it looks like one big silver blur. Eventually the Siren Ranger stops his attack, and the Red Ranger falls down, with an empty health bar.

SCOTT

There I beat the formerly mighty pikapix58. How do you like them apples?

PAUL

So you beat me in a video game, big deal. I'm willing to bet that when it comes to some actual fighting you wouldn't know the first thing to do.

SCOTT

Is that so? You want to test this theory, because if you do, I'm more than game.

Paul looks over at Mark, Eddie, Rachel, and Kia, and they are all shaking their heads.

PAUL

You know what, I've got nothing better to do today, so let's do it. And I know just the place to do it.

SCOTT

Where?

PAUL

Meet me at the Matsumoto dojo in half an hour.

SCOTT

You're on.

Scott gets up and leaves the shop. The other Rangers go up to Paul.

RACHEL

What kind of an ego trip are you on?

PAUL

Rachel, please I don't want to hear it. Besides wouldn't you also be thinking that maybe my ego got bruised when he beat me in the game?

RACHEL

Well...

PAUL

Thank you for somewhat proving my point. Now are the four of you going to go with me to Matsumoto's and cheer me on, or are you just going to stay here?

MARK

Fine we'll go.

FADE OUT.

FADE IN:

INT. THE MATSUMOTO DOJO - DAY

KARI is tidying up a little as Paul (carrying a gym bag), Mark, Eddie, Rachel, and Kia all enter. Paul goes over to Kari.

KARI

Paul, what are you doing here?

PAUL

Is your dad around?

KARI

No he's not, he had to go to Angel Grove today. Why?

PAUL

Think he'd mind if I made use of the facilities here?

KARI

What do you mean?

PAUL

You'll smack me for saying this, but I kinda challenged somebody to a quick sparring session.

Kari smacks Paul.

KARI

You were right about one thing, but I don't think my dad would mind if you used everything here. I'll just say you and Mark wanted to spar.

PAUL

Thanks, I owe you one.

Paul goes into the locker room. Scott, carrying a gym bag, enters the dojo. Kari notices.

KARI

So you must be the guy Paul challenged.

SCOTT

Yeah.

KARI

Locker room's back there.

Kari points in the direction of the locker room. Mark, Eddie, Rachel, Kia, and Kari sit down on the bleachers.

RACHEL

I still can't believe he's doing this.

KARI

You've been hanging around him for a few months now Rachel, you should know by now that Paul can be a little headstrong.

Paul comes out of the locker room barefoot, and dressed in a pair of black karate pants, and a red tank top. Moments later Scott comes out barefoot, and dressed in a white karate uniform with a black belt wrapped around his waist. Paul and Scott face each other on the mat.

PAUL

So you've actually done this.

SCOTT

And as you can see I'm a black belt. You?

PAUL

I'm also a black belt.

SCOTT

And it's a great insult that you didn't wear the proper uniform.

PAUL

And this is coming from a hacker.

SCOTT

Just shut up and let's do this.

Paul and Scott bow to each other, and take fighting stances. Scott starts out by launching a diagonal kick with his right foot at Paul. Paul blocks the attack, and gives Scott a quick chop, which makes contact. Scott falls back a little. Scott then charges at Paul, and gives Paul a very quick barrage of punches, all of which make contact. Paul falls back. Scott charges at Paul again, and starts to alternate between kicking and punching him, and does it at such a frantic pace that Paul is unable to read any of the incoming attacks. Paul falls to his knees.

SCOTT

That isn't all you've got, is it?

PAUL

Just let me warm up.

Paul gets back to his feet, and charges at Scott. Paul tries to punch at Scott, but Scott blocks the attack. Paul tries a series of alternating kicks and punches, but Scott blocks the attacks at frantic pace. Scott then gives Paul another round of alternating kicks and punches at the same frantic pace, until finally Paul falls down on the mat.

SCOTT

Looks like I win. Just face it; I'm younger and faster.

Paul gets to his feet, and heads toward the locker room. Kari gets up and goes after him.

KARI

You're not going to bow to him?

PAUL

Like you couldn't tell that there was no honor in what he just said.

KARI

I'll give you that much.

Paul enters the locker room and moments later, comes out in his regular clothes, and carrying his gym bag. Scott goes over to Paul.

SCOTT

Why didn't you bow to me after the bout?

PAUL

You might be a little better than me, but you lack any real honor.

The warning sound on the morphers goes off. All five Rangers rush out of the dojo.

FADE OUT.

FADE IN:

EXT. THE STREETS OF LINCOLN PARK - DAY

Paul, Mark, Eddie, Rachel, and Kia (all morphed) run up to an area that is somewhat closed off. They stop and look around.

KIA

We're here, but where's the threat?

The sound of maniacal laughing can be heard as CHAOTROS and DR. VENGE appear. Dr. Venge is holding a control device of some kind.

CHAOTROS

Right here Pink Ranger. But soon the five of you will finally be no more.

MARK

Could you not spout out the clichés Chaotros?

CHAOTROS

But this time I really do mean it, and it's all thanks to a wonderful new invention of Venge's.

EDDIE

What exactly is this invention?

DR. VENGE

Just watch.

Dr. Venge presses a button on the control device. JAGUAS, and TIGRAS appear.

PAUL

I thought we defeated them.

DR. VENGE

But thanks to the power of my Vengine they've been reborn. And you haven't even seen the best part yet.

Dr. Venge presses another button on the control device. The Vengines within Jaguas and Tigras start to work to their full potential, and unleash a surge of power that hits the Rangers, causing them to fall down. The Rangers try to get back up, but are unable to.

RACHEL

It's like our suits have become heavier.

PAUL

How Venge?

DR. VENGE

I've been monitoring your power signals for some time now, and have been able to create a wave that can neutralize it, and at the same time allow this to happen.

Dr. Venge points toward Jaguas and Tigras who have a black energy wave going over them. Once the wave has disappeared Jaguas and Tigras have taken new forms.

JAGUAS

As you can see Rangers, the Vengine not only gave us new life...

TIGRAS

...it also has given us even more power than before.

CHAOTROS

And with this power, Jaguas and Tigras will go on a quest to eliminate you once and for all.

The Rangers get back to their feet.

JAGUAS

Hmm...I like the sound of that.

TIGRAS

What?

JAGUAS

Let's call these our new "Quest Forms".

CHAOTROS

I think the two of you know what to do now.

Jaguas and Tigras nod, and they charge at the Rangers extremely fast. Jaguas punches Paul extremely hard in the gut, and he falls back a little. Mark and Eddie try to come up on Jaguas, but he punches Mark quickly, grabs onto him, and flings him to the side. Jaguas then gives Eddie a quick punch, and flips Eddie over his head. Tigras is thoroughly trouncing Rachel and Kia, and they both fall to the ground.

INT. THE MONITORING ROOM - DAY

Doc watches the battle on one of the screens.

DOC

This isn't good, and if the Rangers' powers are going to be rendered useless with that invention of Venge's I guess there's only one thing to do.

Doc presses a few buttons on the terminal in front of him.

INT. SCOTT'S ROOM - DAY

Scott sits in front of his computer looking a little steamed. The face that appeared before Paul, Mark, Eddie, Rachel, and Kia when they first became Rangers appears on Scott's monitor.

SCOTT

What are you?

FACE

I'm just a messenger. Just come to the following address.

The address to Doc's house appears on Scott's monitor.

EXT. THE RANGERS' AREA - DAY

Tigras is now grabbing onto Mark and Rachel. He jumps up into the air, and lets go of Mark and Rachel. They fall to the ground, and land on a nearby car. Paul has his D.A.T.A. Sword drawn as he faces Jaguas, but Jaguas has both of his blasters out, and is using both of them to slash at Paul very quickly. Paul falls back, and Eddie and Kia charge at Jaguas. Jaguas aims his blasters at the two of them, and fires numerous shots. Eddie and Kia take the hits, and fall down.

CHAOTROS

Excellent. I think we've proven our point. Now go destroy more of the city.

Jaguas and Tigras take off.

FADE OUT.

FADE IN:

INT. D.A.T.A. BASE, OUTSIDE OF THE MONITORING ROOM - DAY

Scott wanders around taking in his surroundings.

SCOTT

What is this place?

Doc steps out of the monitoring room.

DOC

This is D.A.T.A. Base, where the Power Rangers call home.

SCOTT

You mean the actual Power Rangers?

DOC

Yes, the Rangers themselves call me "Doc".

SCOTT

What have you called me here for?

DOC

The Rangers are in some grave danger, and they need your help.

SCOTT

What kind of help?

DOC

They've faced a new enemy that can neutralize their powers. I want you to use your original Ranger design to face this enemy.

SCOTT

But won't the guys who you're talking about neutralize me?

DOC

Don't worry I've got a plan. Now I just need to grab one thing.

Doc goes into the inventing room, and moments later walks out with the new morpher. Doc then leads Scott into the monitoring room. Doc loads up Scott's Ranger design, as well as the power stats for Fire 11, Aider 12, and Police 13. Doc then pulls out a small cord and connects it to the morpher. Finally Doc presses a few buttons and after a few seconds, the words "UPLOAD COMPLETE" appears over the screen with Scott's Ranger design. Doc then hands the morpher to Scott.

SCOTT

What is this?

DOC

This is your new Digitize Morpher. You're going to use it to become the Ranger you designed, whatever the name was.

SCOTT

The Siren Ranger, is there anything else I should know?

DOC

No, just welcome to the Digitally Armed Team of Adventurers.

SCOTT

So how do I use this thing?

DOC

Just press the button on the bottom of it to open it up to Command Mode. Then press the digital chronograph to activate the powers.

SCOTT

Is there some kind of activation phrase?

DOC

The other Rangers say "go digital" when they activate their powers, unfortunately I haven't thought of anything for you.

SCOTT

What's the name of the other Rangers' morphers?

DOC

Digital.

SCOTT

I just thought of it.

The alarm goes off, and Jaguas and Tigras can be seen in another part of the city.

DOC

Looks like you're going to have the perfect opportunity to test out your new powers. So there's only one thing left to do.

Scott straps the Digitize Morpher onto his left wrist. He then crosses his left arm over his body diagonally and opens up the morpher with his right hand.

SCOTT

Siren...

Scott then moves his left arm to the other side of his body, and has his left arm sticking out a little. Scott then presses the digital chronograph with his right hand.

SCOTT

DIGITIZE!

Scott brings his arms to his sides as silver binary code comes out of the Digitize Morpher and forms onto him. The code stays on Scott for a while until a silver light shines through parts on Scott's body revealing Scott in suit without the helmet. The sirens on Scott's shoulders sound as translucent versions of Fire 11, Aider 12, and Police 13 combine over Scott's head forming the helmet with the sirens flashing. Scott is now morphed.

DOC

Excellent, everything worked.

SCOTT

Now what?

DOC

Just go to the garage. The D.A.T.A. Tracker will be in there and you can go to where you need to be.

Scott leaves the monitoring room. Moments later Paul, Mark, Eddie, Rachel, and Kia (all now unmorphed) enter the monitoring room.

PAUL

Doc, we-

DOC
Don't worry about it Paul. I've all ready taken care of it.

MARK
So that means we've got another Ranger?

DOC
Yes, and you'll all be happy to know that he won't have the same problems you guys had.

EDDIE
So who is it?

DOC RaveSiren.

FADE OUT.

FADE IN:

EXT. A PLAZA IN LINCOLN PARK - DAY

Jaguas and Tigras are terrorizing the area. They stop when they see part of the ground opening up.

TIGRAS

Looks like the Rangers are coming after us again.

JAGUAS

Like it really matters, with the power of the Vengine, their powers are useless.

The D.A.T.A. Tracker comes out of the opening in the ground, and parks. Scott gets out of the vehicle and faces Jaguas and Tigras.

TIGRAS

And who are you?

SCOTT

I'm the Siren Ranger.

JAGUAS

Since when is there a "Siren Ranger"?

SCOTT

Just think of me as the new model.

TIGRAS

You won't be around for long. Our powers neutralize Ranger powers. Let's teach this punk a little lesson.

JAGUAS

Agreed.

Jaguas and Tigras both take out their weapons, aim at Scott, and fire. Scott quickly takes out his weapon and converts it. When Jaguas and Tigras' shots reach Scott he uses his weapon to deflect their shots. The shots go to both of Scott's sides and create small explosions.

TIGRAS

Impossible.

INT. THE MONITORING ROOM - DAY

Doc, Paul, Mark, Eddie, Rachel, and Kia watch the events in the plaza on a monitor.

EDDIE

How is he able to stand his own like that?

DOC

The Digitize Morpher takes its power from the new Rescue Trekkers, which run off of a similar, but different power than the D.A.T.A. Trekkers. And because they're new, I know Venge wouldn't have the ability to neutralize their power.

EXT. THE PLAZA - DAY

Scott converts his weapon back to its original form and puts it away.

SCOTT

I don't know what the two of you are up to, but now it's time to dazzle you with my abilities.

Scott starts to run at Jaguas and Tigras eventually becoming a silver colored streak. Once he gets near the two of them, Scott grabs onto Jaguas and Tigras, and pushes them into a wall. The impact of Scott pushing Jaguas and Tigras into the wall creates a crater in it. Scott places both of his feet on Jaguas and Tigras and uses them to springboard himself to do a back flip. Scott lands just as Jaguas and Tigras fall out of the wall. Jaguas and Tigras get to their feet.

JAGUAS

Why you!

Jaguas and Tigras jump up and streak toward Scott. Just as they get near Scott, he draws his weapon.

SCOTT

Detect Blaster!

Scott aims the Detect Blaster at Jaguas and Tigras and starts to fire shots at them. Jaguas and Tigras take the shots and fall to the ground. Once Jaguas and Tigras get to their feet Scott aims the Blaster again and fires even more shots at them. Once Scott stops Jaguas draws both of his blasters.

JAGUAS

Take this!

Jaguas fires at Scott but he dodges the shots, and jumps up all the while converting the Detect Blaster.

SCOTT

Detect Staff!

Scott lands and starts to slash at Jaguas and Tigras with the Detect Staff. The two of them manage to block Scott's attacks for a while, but eventually the blade on the end of the Staff hits them both. Tigras tries to come up behind Scott, but Scott hits him, and moves on to strike Jaguas. Jaguas tries to hit Scott, but Scott dodges the attacks, and grabs onto Jaguas. Tigras comes up behind Scott, but Scott quickly gets behind Jaguas and uses him as a shield. Jaguas takes Tigras' hit, and Scott pushes him out of the way to hit Tigras with the handle on the Staff followed by a quick slash from the top of the slash. Tigras falls back, and Jaguas comes up behind Scott. Jaguas tries to strike him, but Scott blocks the attack with his Staff.

SCOTT

You are so going down.

JAGUAS

Just wait and see.

Scott and Jaguas press against each other's weapons for a while until breaking free of the grip. Jaguas then charges at Scott, and tries to slash him with his blasters, but Scott hits one of Jaguas' blasters with the handle on his Staff, and then slashes at Jaguas a couple of times with the top of his Staff. Scott gives Jaguas a hard kick, and Jaguas goes flying back. Tigras goes up to Jaguas.

TIGRAS

Jaguas!

Scott charges at the two of them, just as Jaguas gets back to his feet.

JAGUAS

Let's leave him.

The Vengine covers on Jaguas and Tigras' chests flash for a second, and they both go into the ground. Scott stops.

JAGUAS

Just try to find us now!

Scott lifts his Staff and rotates the dial on it.

SCOTT

Search Mode!

A voice from the Staff says, "search start", and Scott grabs onto the handle and places the top of the staff over the ground. Scott presses the trigger, and starts to move the Staff over the ground. Eventually a light on the Staff flashes and the voice says, "hit".

SCOTT

There you are.

Scott jumps in the air and does a front flip, and converts his Staff into his Blaster. Scott aims the Blaster.

SCOTT

Detect Blaster, full power!

Scott fires a shot at the ground where Jaguas and Tigras are. The blast hits the ground causing Jaguas and Tigras to come out. They fly up and fall to the ground. Scott lands with his Staff in hand. Jaguas and Tigras get back to their feet.

SCOTT

Now to finish this!

The headlights on Scott's helmet flash and the sirens on his helmet and shoulders start to sound.

SCOTT

Detect Staff Slash!

Scott turns around and unleashes a high-powered slash on Jaguas and Tigras. The slash hits Jaguas and Tigras, and causes an explosion.

SCOTT

There that should take care of that.

The flames from the explosion clear, and Jaguas and Tigras roll on the ground. They both get to their feet.

JAGUAS

This isn't over Siren Ranger. We'll be back, and next time you will be destroyed.

Jaguas and Tigras disappear. Paul, Mark, Eddie, Rachel, and Kia (all morphed) come up behind Scott.

MARK

Not bad for a rookie.

EDDIE

Yeah, you did pretty good.

KIA

Well there's an understatement.

PAUL

As leader of the Rangers, I'd just like to say welcome to the team.

SCOTT

You can keep your team. This power is amazing, and I'm going to use it to my advantage.

RACHEL

What do you mean?

SCOTT

I'm talking fame, maybe some fortune. Who knows? It's a big world out there and it's the Siren Ranger's oyster.

Scott walks off.

SCOTT

Oh and I'm taking the D.A.T.A. Tracker.

Scott completely disappears from sight.

MARK

This isn't good.

PAUL

This is worse than when you first became a Ranger, Blue.

EDDIE

How is it worse?

RACHEL

He's going to use his powers for his own personal gain.

KIA

And who knows how far it'll get him.

INT. INSIDIA'S LAB - DAY

INSIDIA sits in her throne. Chaotros, Dr. Venge, Jaguas, and Tigras stand before her.

INSIDIA

While I'm pleased that we were able to revive Jaguas and Tigras, your actions Chaotros will not go unpunished.

CHAOTROS

You're a fine one to talk, because if I remember correctly, didn't someone call Jaguas and Tigras as well as Panthras without talking to her partner about it first?

INSIDIA

Point taken. However I'm disappointed in you Venge. If you had told me the kind of power this invention of yours was capable of I would have let you make.

DR. VENGE

Don't take this the wrong way Insidia, but I did try to tell you about it, and you shot me down.

CHAOTROS

At which point I gave him the authorization to make the Vengine anyway.

INSIDIA

Fine, we're even Chaotros. But don't try anything like this again.

CHAOTROS

Try taking your own advice.

INSIDIA

All in all, I'm pleased with everything despite the fact that we have ANOTHER Ranger to deal with.

DR. VENGE

Don't worry Insidia, there's another Vengine, and it has even more power than the ones I gave Jaguas and Tigras.
