"POWER RANGERS ELEMENTAL BLADE: EPISODE 10 - OFFENDING THE OLFACTORY SENSE"

FADE IN:

EXT. THE HATHAWAY MANSION - TWELVE YEARS AGO - DAY

EVAN AT 9 sits on the front steps of the mansion. A rolled up sleeping bag and a tackle box sit to Evan at 9's right, as he holds a fishing pole in his left hand. HATHAWAY and a blonde woman walk up to Evan at 9.

HATHAWAY

I'm sorry Evan, but I can't take you up to the cabin. Something's come up.

EVAN AT 9

What's come up daddy?

HATHAWAY

I have to help this nice lady find her car. She seems to have misplaced it. Maybe next year.

A disappointed look goes over Evan at 9's face, as Hathaway and the blonde woman walk away from the mansion. Evan at 9 gets up, grabs the sleeping bag and tackle box, and starts to walk into the mansion.

EVAN AT 9

Mom!

No answer comes from the within the mansion. Evan at 9 walks into the mansion, and closes the door behind him.

EVAN AT 9

(O/S)

Mom?

Again Evan at 9 does not get answer.

EVAN AT 9

(O/S)

(unsure) Mommy?

DISSOLVE TO:

EXT. THE HATHAWAY MANSION - TWO YEARS LATER - DAY

EVAN AT 11 sits on the front steps of the mansion with a sleeping bag and tackle box to his right, while holding a fishing pole with his left hand. A look of excitement is on Evan at 11's face. Hathaway and a brunette woman walk up to the front of the mansion. Evan at 11's expression changes to look unenthused.

HATHAWAY

Sorry, something's come up again.

EVAN AT 11

But we actually went last year.

HATHAWAY

That was mostly to get our minds off of what happened two years ago. Either way, I've got to help this nice lady do...something.

Hathaway and the brunette woman walk away from the mansion.

DISSOLVE TO:

EXT. THE HATHAWAY MANSION - PRESENT DAY - DAY

Hathaway paces by the front door. Two sleeping bags, two tackle boxes, and two fishing poles sit on the front steps. EVAN walks up to the front steps, and Hathaway stops pacing.

HATHAWAY

So, you ready to go?

Evan pauses for a moment, and a somewhat sinister smile goes over his face.

EVAN

I'm sorry dad, but something's come up. I've got to-

HATHAWAY

Cut the nonsense, I know what you're doing.

EVAN

(slyly) I don't know what you're talking about.

HATHAWAY

You're many things Evan, but most importantly you are your father's son. You're seeing my eagerness to go on this trip as a chance to blow me off like I did to you all of those years.

EVAN

I'd try to argue with you dad, but like you said, I am my father's son. Besides a few years ago I actually started to expect you to bail out on me anyway. Plus wouldn't it be kinda stupid for me to leave the city at the moment, with someone like Electrex trying to destroy the world?

HATHAWAY

The only reason why I want to go is because it's supposed to rain this weekend, but the weather should be fine at the cabin.

EVAN

Well I can't and you know I can't leave the city.

HATHAWAY

Well then I guess I need to congratulate you Evan.

EVAN

(confused) Come again?

HATHAWAY

Perhaps giving you your morpher has given you a sense of duty, which is something you've never had.

EVAN

Certainly someone never passed that along to me.

HATHAWAY

Although why you find it necessary to constantly spit in my face boggles my mind.

EVAN

You're the one who more or less left me and Roma to be raised by the help after mom died. So you shouldn't have been surprised by the way I've been acting, or Roma's "reckless driving" charge from the a few years ago.

The alarm on Evan's morpher goes off, and he runs away from Hathaway. Hathaway sighs as he watches his son run off.

HATHAWAY

Where did you go wrong with him?

FADE OUT. OPENING CREDITS.

FADE IN:

EXT. AN ALLEYWAY - DAY

DAMASH teleports into the alley, and quickly changes his attire to a pair of black pants, a light blue t-shirt, and a black leather jacket. He walks out of the alley, and onto the street, walking down the sidewalk. Damash looks around and takes in his surroundings.

DAMASH

I can't believe this place potentially has some of the DNA I need for my cloning experiments.

Damash continues on his path, eventually walking past a building marked "ROSSI'S", and eventually stops in a small park that has bronze statues of six Power Rangers on a granite pedestal. Damash walks over to the statues and looks down at the pedestal, seeing a gold plate embedded in the granite. Damash then starts to read the inscription that is on the plate.

DAMASH

This park is dedicated to the valiant efforts of the D.A.T.A. Rangers, who defended our city from the threat of Insidia in 2007.

A partial look of disgust goes over Damash's face.

DAMASH

Pathetic hero worship.

Damash reaches into one of his pants pockets and pulls out a small scanning device. He holds it up and turns the device on. Once switched on, the scanner starts to beep loudly.

DAMASH

I've found something all ready?

Damash wanders around the park for a few moments, until stumbling upon a piece of white cloth, at which point the scanner starts beeping even louder than before. Damash quickly turns the scanner off.

DAMASH

Better not keep arouse any suspicion. Either way you should probably head back to the ship.

Damash breaks into several pieces and teleports away.

INT. THE THUNDERCRACK - A LABORATORY - TIME UNKNOWN

Damash (dressed normally) teleports into his personal lab, and brings the piece of white cloth over to a nearby table.

DAMASH

It'll take some time to figure out where exactly this cloth came from, but at least you'll be vindicated if your theory is correct. (pause) Come to think of it, if this piece of cloth is from who you think it is-

VOICE

Then you'd better come up with some kind of control from whatever's coming up with these cloning experiments.

Damash turns around and sees ELECTREX.

DAMASH

You're probably right.

ELECTREX

Probably?

DAMASH

Okay you're definitely right. After all there's no point in having more than one person who's unpredictable, running around in this ship. Now what about that monster you wanted me to create before I left?

ELECTREX

Olfacto is down on Earth right now causing the havoc I want him to make.

FADE OUT.

FADE IN:

EXT. DOWNTOWN SAN FORTUNA - DAY

DON, KEN, Evan, MEL, and LISA (all morphed) confront the OLFACTO monster. Each of the Rangers has their Elemental Katana drawn and they all charge at the monster in an attempt to slash him. However, Olfacto spews some of his green gas at them, which causes them to back off.

DON

Lisa, would you mind trying to get rid of this gas?

LISA

(begrudgingly) Fine.

Lisa spins the Basic Disk on her Katana.

LISA

Air Vane!

Lisa's Katana becomes the Air Vane, and she places the Sky Disk on it. Lisa then starts to wave the Air Vane toward Olfacto, which blows his gas away, but also causes the gas to come in contact with a few surrounding buildings. Olfacto starts to laugh a little.

OLFACTO

The Baron told me you Rangers would do something like this, but no matter how much you try to blow away my fumes it'll be useless.

EVAN

And what if we wash them away?

OLFACTO

Don't make me laugh Blue Ranger. You can't wash away gas that's hanging around in the air.

EVAN

I meant after your gas hits something.

OLFACTO

Well in that case, go ahead and try it.

Evan looks around and sees a bus stop bench that is covered in a green residue. He takes out his morpher, converts it to brush mode, and draws the Samurai Emblem for wash, "洗". Evan flips the drawing and a small line of water goes over the green residue. However, instead of cleaning up the residue, the line of water causes the residue to bubble, until the bench melts.

EVAN

What the-?

DON

This isn't good.

MEL

What's not good?

DON

I'd have to do some tests back at the command center to be sure, but even then I only have a basic working knowledge of chemistry.

LISA

You don't think that-

DON

Like I said I need to do some tests back at the command center.

EVAN

Are we just going to sit around here and talk about what we need to do, or are we actually going to take this thing out?

OLFACTO

Yeah, do you guys just stand around talking all day, or are we actually going to fight?

KEN

Well excuse us for trying to assess the situation at hand. It's not our fault that a few of us have IQs that are well into the triple digits.

Olfacto draws a sword, and charges at Don, Ken, Evan, Mel, and Lisa. Lisa quickly converts the Air Vane back into her Katana, and slashes at Olfacto. Olfacto takes the hit and falls back a little.

OLFACTO

Now that's what I'm talking about.

Don, Ken, Evan, and Mel charge at Olfacto, and each give him hard slashes.

OLFACTO

Okay maybe that's enough.

KEN

You're the one who wanted a fight, and that's what we're giving you.

OLFACTO

But I didn't think it'd be this severe. Either way it's time to release my noxious amnesia gas so you guys forget about what I'm trying to do.

KEN

Please, five bucks says it's not amnesia gas.

OLFACTO

But it sure is noxious, you gotta give me that.

Olfacto emits a huge puff of green gas, which disperses throughout the area, and Don, Ken, Evan, Mel, and Lisa cough from the fumes. Olfacto then turns into a puff of green gas and disappears.

DON, KEN, EVAN, MEL, AND LISA

Power down!

Don, Ken, Evan, Mel, and Lisa power down.

DON

I want to grab a couple samples of that residue before we head back.

KEN

I didn't realize it before with the helmet on, but those fumes really are noxious.

FADE OUT.

FADE IN:

INT. THE COMMAND CENTER - DAY

AKIRA stands before the computer terminal. The aqua colored marlin-like object is displayed on the screen above him. Don walks into the command center carrying a sheet of paper. Don is soon followed by Ken, Evan, Mel, and Lisa.

KEN

So what's with those fumes?

DON

Well I'm no chemist, but as far as I can tell whenever that monster's fumes come in contact with solid objects they leave that residue. But as we saw when Evan tried to wash the residue away, the residue has a chemical reaction with the water causing whatever the residue is covering to melt.

LISA

So how do we get rid of the residue?

DON

Well water will do the trick, but it needs to be mixed with something. I tried several different things, but what appeared to work the best was sodium.

EVAN

Sodium?

KEN

Plain old salt.

AKIRA

Then it's a good thing the new Zord is just about finished.

DON

It is?

AKIRA

I'm working on the final touches right now.

EVAN

What's this Zord?

AKIRA

The Ocean Marlin. And luckily its element is saltwater.

LISA

Then this is perfect, we use the Ocean Marlin to defeat that thing, and use its saltwater powers to wash away whatever residue is all over the city.

MEL

So who's getting the new Zord?

DON

Well given that the Flame Beetle's power doesn't really differ that much from my normal fire powers...

AKIRA

We were thinking that since the Ocean Marlin's powers are basically water anyway...

EVAN

So I'm getting it?

DON

Yeah.

EVAN

Maybe you're no so bad after all Don.

DON

Well, you'll be getting it pending approval from your dad.

EVAN

Oh no.

Hathaway walks into the command center.

HATHAWAY

Oh no is right.

EVAN

So you're not going to give this one to me, are you?

HATHAWAY

I think you know the answer to that question.

EVAN

This doesn't have anything to do with our discussion back at the mansion, does it?

HATHAWAY

Perhaps.

AKIRA

Look Tom, I know you don't want to give this to Evan, but Don and I more or less designed this one with him in mind to pilot it.

HATHAWAY

Regardless, given his behavior recently he doesn't deserve anything new like this.

KEN

So you're going to potentially endanger the lives of millions, just to punish Evan? What kind of a father are you?

EVAN

He's the kind of father who'd be willing to fire his own son if he could. But whatever I'm out of here.

Evan storms off. Lisa starts to go after him, but Hathaway stops her.

HATHAWAY

Don't worry about him, his sister's in town and I've told her to have a little talk with him.

FADE OUT.

FADE IN:

EXT. HATHAWAY ENTERPRISES H.Q. - DAY

The green residue can be seen on the side of the building as Evan makes his way out.

EVAN

Who does that man think he is?

Evan's sister, ROMA walks up behind him.

ROMA

He's your father.

Evan turns around to see his sister, and an unenthused look goes over his face.

EVAN

Great, what are you doing here?

ROMA

Dad wanted me to come to the cabin with you guys.

EVAN

And you flew clear across the country to do it?

ROMA

The company was paying for it, so why not? Look Evan, he told me about your little discussion at the mansion earlier. And as much as he's not going to like what I'm about to say, you're right.

EVAN

Wait, what?

ROMA

Why do you doubt me?

EVAN

Because of the chewing out you gave me a while back.

ROMA

I've got to admit to something about that.

EVAN

What?

ROMA

I was only telling you what dad wanted me to. Frankly I agree with you on that one.

EVAN

Why are you telling me this?

ROMA

Do you remember my "legal troubles" from a few years ago?

EVAN

You mean that "reckless driving" charge?

ROMA

Yeah. Well he gave me the same chewing out that, from what I've heard, he's been giving you lately. Although dropping out of college wasn't the best way to get his attention to get what you want. And let's face it; dad's probably the biggest jerk around.

A look of shock goes over Evan's face.

EVAN

You...badmouthing...dad?

ROMA

Don't look so shocked, why do you think I insisted on working in the Manhattan office after I graduated from college?

EVAN

I thought it's because you've always hated me, and would probably do anything to get a bigger piece of inheritance.

ROMA

Well maybe a few years ago I was like that, but since you've only ever really seen me at Christmas, you don't know about some of the changes I've gone through since being in New York. Frankly neither does dad.

EVAN

What caused this?

ROMA

Well being locked up in jail for a month will do it. And then there's the real world, and working at a high ranking job for a multinational corporation. All of that made me realize that however shallow I was, it's completely meaningless. But where were we?

EVAN

I forget, I think it was some kind of a family thing.

ROMA

Right. Right. Anyway I think you should probably call dad on whatever problems he's been having with you. You probably won't get an apology out of him, because...well you know.

EVAN

I know. Now I've got a question.

ROMA

What?

EVAN

Since it's looking why we're finally going to start getting along, do you think dad's going to stand for this?

ROMA

Well...maybe...

EVAN

I think we both know the answer to that.

ROMA

You're right, he won't. But I've got a question for you?

EVAN

What?

ROMA

What stinks so much?

FADE OUT.

FADE IN:

INT. THE THUNDERCRACK - THRONE ROOM - TIME UNKNOWN

Electrex (wearing a black wetsuit) sits in the plasma energy tub relaxing. In his left hand Electrex is holding a goblet, using a crazy straw to take an occasional sip of his drink, which has a mist that is bubbling over the rim. Electrex's rubber ducky is also floating on the surface of the plasma. Olfacto appears in front of the tub.

ELECTREX

What are you doing back here?

OLFACTO

The Rangers retreated after they saw what happens with my gas and plain water.

ELECTREX

Must my relaxation time be disturbed like this?

OLFACTO

But what about-

ELECTREX

Look, in my time on Earth one of the things that I've come to learn is that most humans aren't too trusting of their weather forecasts. Whatever's been predicted for the next couple of days isn't going to be readily believed so we're fine. Just try not to get yourself destroyed before the forecast sets in.

OLFACTO

But-

Electrex raises his right hand to silence Olfacto.

ELECTREX

Don't want to hear it. I just want to sit in my energy tub, recharge a little, and let whatever worries I may have slip away. As far as I'm concerned you don't exist right now. And should the Rangers figure out my little scheme you better wish you didn't exist anymore.

OLFACTO

But-

Electrex grabs his rubber ducky with his right hand, and throws it at Olfacto in a fit of rage.

ELECTREX

WHAT DID I JUST SAY?!

OLFACTO

Okay I'm going.

Olfacto turns into a puff of green gas and disappears. SEDUCTRA walks into the throne room, and goes over to the plasma energy tub.

SEDUCTRA

Electrex, there's-

ELECTREX

Wait a minute, where's my ducky?
(panicked) Where's my ducky?

SEDUCTRA

I don't know. I didn't see it when I came in.

ELECTREX

(panicked) Well look for it.

Seductra looks around and sees the ducky lying on the floor. She walks over to it, picks it up, and brings it to Electrex, and he breathes a sigh of relief.

ELECTREX

That was a close one. Daddy loves ducky. Ducky love daddy?

Electrex holds the ducky to his right ear, and squeaks it twice.

ELECTREX

Oh ducky, you make relaxation time lots of fun. Now what did you want?

SEDUCTRA

I was thinking that if the Rangers defeat Olfacto, then maybe next time instead of sending the beast, we send down beauty to destroy them.

FADE OUT.

FADE IN:

EXT. DOWNTOWN SAN FORTUNA - DAY

Olfacto walks around spewing his green gas everywhere. The gas makes contact with nearby buildings, leaving the residue. However several nearby bystanders also start coughing uncontrollably, before collapsing in the streets.

OLFACTO

That's a pleasant bonus. The Baron should be happy with that.

A pink colored wind clears the air of the green gas, and loud sirens can be heard. Olfacto turns around to see Lisa (morphed) holding the Air Vane, and several ambulances speeding toward the area. The ambulances park and Don, Ken, and Mel (all morphed) get out of them, soon followed by several paramedics, who are all wearing oxygen masks.

DON

Lisa, you and Mel help the paramedics. Ken, we'll fend off the monster long enough to let the paramedics get free.

LISA

And why do I have to help the paramedics?

DON

Because you're a med student, and you'd be better off doing what you can with that.

LISA

(taken aback) Oh.

The Air Vane becomes Lisa's Katana again, and she then joins up with Mel. Mel and Lisa start to help the paramedics gather the victims of Olfacto's gas, and putting oxygen masks on the victims. Don and Ken draw their Katanas and start to slash at Olfacto numerous times. Olfacto then takes out his sword and starts to slash at Don and Ken, only to get his attacks blocked by Don and Ken's Katanas. Don and Ken give Olfacto simultaneous slashes, which knock Olfacto back several feet.

OLFACTO

Try this!

Olfacto spews a concentrated stream of gas at Don, and Ken. The gas hits the two of them, and they both fall to the ground coughing uncontrollably. The ambulances speed off, and Mel and Lisa run toward Olfacto, drawing their Katanas along the way. Mel and Lisa slash at Olfacto and he takes the hits, falling back a few feet. Lisa looks down at Don and Ken on the ground.

LISA

What did you do?

OLFACTO

I don't know who made your helmets, but my gas was able to seep right on through them. Then again that's to be expected for cheap Earth materials.

MEL

So what are we going to do without the guys?

LISA

You keep slashing at him with your Katana.

MEL

What about his gas?

LISA

Leave that to me.

Lisa spins her Basic Disk, which turns her Katana back into the Air Vane again. Olfacto tries to spew some gas, but Lisa blows it away with the Vane. Mel then starts to slash at Olfacto numerous times. Olfacto takes the hits, and starts to spew more gas, only to get it blown away by Lisa again, at which point Mel starts to slash at him.

MEL

Where's Evan when we need him right now?

INT. THE COMMAND CENTER - DAY

Akira stands in front of computer terminal watching Mel and Lisa fighting Olfacto on the screen. Hathaway walks in.

HATHAWAY

How are they doing?

AKIRA

Mel and Lisa seem to be putting up a pretty good fight, but Don and Ken are down for the count right now.

HATHAWAY

What about Evan?

AKIRA

He's not there.

HATHAWAY

If he's not there, then where is he?

Evan walks into the command center.

EVAN

Right here.

HATHAWAY

You need to get down there now.

EVAN

First we need to talk.

HATHAWAY

No you need to get down there to fight that monster.

EVAN

No I-

HATHAWAY

Listen, I didn't give you that morpher again to not use it to defend the city. So get down there!

EVAN

No, you listen; all my life you've never been the type of father who really seemed like he cared about his children. And you wonder why Roma and I have done some of the things we've done. Don and Akira both know I'm the best man to use that new Zord, and you know it too. So just let me have it.

HATHAWAY

No. And I don't want to hear another word about this.

Hathaway storms out of the command center. Akira walks over to the workbench, grabs something, and walks over to Evan.

AKIRA

Here.

Akira hands Evan the aqua-colored Ocean Disk.

EVAN

You're-

AKIRA

Don and I designed this one for you to use, and right now I don't care if your father fires me.

EXT. DOWNTOWN SAN FORTUNA - DAY

Don and Ken (both still morphed) are still lying on the ground, as Mel and Lisa (both also still morphed) fight against Olfacto. Mel slashes at Olfacto a few times, while Lisa blows his gasses away with the Air Vane.

MEL

This is getting ridiculous.

LISA

I know. My arm's starting to cramp up a little from waving this weapon too much.

OLFACTO

Try all you want Rangers, but there's nothing that'll get rid of my gasses.

Evan runs up to the area.

EVAN

Let's see about that.

Evan takes out his morpher, converts it to brush mode, and presses the green button.

EVAN

Samurai brushstroke!

Evan morphs. He then takes out his Basic Disk, places it on his Katana, and draws his Katana.

OLFACTO

You're not going to try to use that little sword on me, are you?

EVAN

No, something else.

Evan spins his Basic Disk.

EVAN

Hydro Bow!

Evan's Katana becomes the Hydro Bow. Evan then places the Ocean Disk on the Hydro Bow.

EVAN

I just hope this works.

Evan points the Hydro Bow up, and pulls back on the secondary handle. Evan lets go of the secondary handle, firing an arrow of water that flies up, and becomes an energy version of the Ocean Marlin. The Ocean Marlin hovers in the air for a moment, before turning into droplets of saltwater, which rain down on the city. The saltwater droplets hit everything that Olfacto's gas touched, perfectly washing away the residue.

OLFACTO

No!!!!

The saltwater rain also hits Don and Ken, and they get back onto their feet with their Katanas in hand.

DON

Looks like the saltwater is also reviving us.

KEN

Good thing too, because I've had enough of this guy.

DON

Couldn't agree more.

Don spins his Basic Disk.

DON

Flame Sword!

Don's Katana becomes the Flame Sword.

DON

Evan, place the Ocean Disk on here, and we'll finish this thing off.

EVAN

The Ocean Disk will work like that?

Don nods. Evan goes over to Don, and places the Ocean Disk on the Flame Sword. Don waves the Flame Sword over his head a few times, converting it to Cannon Mode. Don, Ken, Evan, Mel, and Lisa take out their signature Element Disks, and place them in the Flame Sword. Evan stands beside Don, as Ken, Mel, and Lisa crouch down.

DON
Marlin Crash!

EVAN
Fire!

Don fires the Element Disks, which take the form of the Ocean Marlin, and hit Olfacto. Olfacto takes the hit, and falls down and explodes. A lightning bolt descends from the sky, creating an explosion that causes Olfacto to grow to gigantic size. Don, Ken, Evan, Mel, and Lisa take out their morphers and convert them to brush mode. They all then draw their helmet Samurai Emblems.

DON, KEN, EVAN, MEL, AND LISA
Samurai Zord Emblems!

The Samurai Emblems glow for a moment, becoming the Samurai Zord Emblems. Don, Ken, Evan, Mel, and Lisa place their Samurai Zord Emblems on the ground and draw the Samurai Emblem for "big" on them.

DON, KEN, EVAN, MEL, AND LISA
Samurai Zords, grow and unfold!

The Samurai Zord Emblems grow to gigantic size and unfold into the Samurai Zords. Inside of the Lion Emblem, Don draws the Samurai Emblem for "combine", and flips it. The Samurai Zords then combine.

DON, KEN, EVAN, MEL, AND LISA
Samurai Megazord!

The Samurai Megazord faces Olfacto, and draws its katana and shield.

OLFACTO
You're not going to defeat me!

Olfacto blows a gas out of his mouth, which creates a smokescreen that blinds the Samurai Megazord.

MEL
We can't see.

EVAN
We've got to hang on.

KEN
(sarcastically) You think.

Olfacto charges and slashes at the Samurai Megazord with his sword. Olfacto slashes again, but the Samurai Megazord deflects the attack, only to receive a few more slashes from Olfacto, which knock the shield out of its hands. Inside of the Samurai Megazord Don, Ken, Evan, Mel, and Lisa struggle a little.

MEL

We need to get rid of the smoke.

EVAN

Don, would the Ocean Marlin be able to take care of the smoke?

DON

Well there's only one way to find out, now isn't there?

Evan takes his Katana out of his control panel, and places the Ocean Disk on it. He then spins the Disk, and the blade becomes surrounded by saltwater, releasing an energy version of the Ocean Marlin. Outside the energy Ocean Marlin comes out of the Samurai Megazord and becomes solid.

OLFACTO

A fish?

Inside of the Ocean Marlin, Evan stands behind a control panel that has his Katana in it.

EVAN

Marlin Torpedoes!

Outside the Ocean Marlin fires several torpedoes at Olfacto. Olfacto takes the hits and falls back. The Ocean Marlin then charges forward and strikes Olfacto with its sword-like nose. Olfacto takes that hit, and runs off a little.

KEN

That fish is impressive.

DON

Evan, combine the Marlin with the Megazord.

EVAN

Right.

Inside of the Ocean Marlin, Evan takes his Katana out of the control panel and spins the Ocean Disk.

EVAN

Ocean Marlin, combine!

Outside the Ocean Marlin flies over to the Samurai Megazord, and combines with it.

DON, KEN, EVAN, MEL, AND LISA
Samurai Megazord Ocean Sword!

DON
Megazord Katana, double edge mode!

The Samurai Megazord's katana transforms into a double edged staff. The Samurai Megazord then starts to slash at Olfacto with the staff, and Olfacto takes the hits and falls back. The Samurai Megazord then bends over forward.

EVAN
Marlin Torpedoes!

The Samurai Megazord fires several torpedoes at Olfacto, causing him to drop his sword. Inside of the Samurai Megazord Don, Ken, Evan, Mel, and Lisa take their Katanas out of their control panels, and spin their disks. Outside the Samurai Megazord raises its katana, and releases it. The katana flies up, and the top of the Ocean Sword formation helmet opens up, allowing the katana to enter it. The Samurai Megazord waves its head a few times, striking Olfacto with the katana on its head.

DON, KEN, EVAN, MEL, AND LISA
Ocean Slash!

Saltwater goes over the blade of the katana, and the Samurai Megazord bends over forward to give Olfacto a hard slash. Olfacto takes the hit, and falls down and explodes.

FADE OUT.

FADE IN:

INT. THE COMMAND CENTER - DAY

Akira stands before the computer terminal, as Don, Ken, Evan, and Lisa walk in.

AKIRA

Looks like the Ocean Marlin was a success.

DON

Not to mention that its user worked out quite well too.

Hathaway walks into the command center.

HATHAWAY

Too bad this will be the last time Evan will ever get to use it. And Akira I should probably fire you for giving it to Evan.

DON

Well if Akira's getting fired, then I quit.

KEN

And if Don's out, then I'm out.

LISA

Me too.

HATHAWAY

I'd say that I can do this whole Ranger thing without the three of you, but as you proved a couple months ago, I can't. So Akira gets to keep his job.

EVAN

And don't forget dad, that the press would have a field day if you actually let three of the Rangers quit like this too.

HATHAWAY

Don't remind me about that.

EXT. HATHAWAY ENTERPRISES H.Q. - DAY

Don, Ken, Evan, and Lisa walk out of the building.

EVAN

I guess I should thank the three of you for sticking up for me like that.

KEN

Actually I was only really going to back out if Don did.

DON

And admittedly I was mostly sticking up for Akira, but at least your dad actually let you keep that Zord, right?

EVAN

Yeah I guess.

LISA

What exactly is his problem with you?

EVAN

I wish I knew. At times I think he actually does care for me, but then there are the times when it seems like he never wanted kids.

Mel and Roma walk up to Don, Ken, Evan, and Lisa.

LISA

(to Mel) So that's where you went.

ROMA

Well I did want to catch up with Mel anyway. (to Evan) So how'd the talk that dad was going to give go?

EVAN

He let me keep that Zord, and I think he may be taking a couple of hints here and there.

The sky darkens, a clap of thunder is heard, and rain starts to fall from the sky.

KEN

It's raining?

DON

That must've been what Electrex was planning.

EVAN

What?

LISA

He was going to have that monster spew those gasses, and then let the rain mix with the residue to completely destroy the city.

EVAN

Then it's a good thing that we took care of the residue.

ROMA

Hate to break up this moment of realization, but can we get inside? It is raining after all.

Don, Ken, Evan, Mel, Lisa, and Roma walk inside of the building.

FADE OUT.

FADE IN:

INT. THE THUNDERCRACK - DAMASH'S LAB - TIME UNKNOWN

Damash stands by the table still analyzing the piece of white cloth.

DAMASH

It's definitely got to be who I think it is.

Electrex (dressed normally) walks into the lab.

ELECTREX

Well Olfacto was another bust.

DAMASH

Not that it bothers you anyway.

ELECTREX

Besides, Seductra just pitched an idea for a plan that she's wanted to do for a while. So we should be good. Now there's something that I've been wondering.

DAMASH

What?

ELECTREX

Has Ralaez mentioned when he'd be swinging by to help us out?

DAMASH

All he told me was that he'd be here "soon". How soon that is questionable, but he's more than willing to give the Rangers all he's got.

ELECTREX

Then I guess that's good enough. Although I do hope that when he gets here, he enacts on a little something that I want him to do.

DAMASH

What do you want him to do?

ELECTREX

It's a real doozey.

INT. THE THUNDERCRACKI - CARGO BAY - TIME UNKNOWN

BRUUDAS sits by a couple of crates, brooding.

BRUUDAS

Why does he refuse to use me at all?

A red energy skull appears in the cargo bay, and flies around a little, eventually becoming a white colored alien, with a red, skull-like face.

WHITE ALIEN

You know you don't have to take Electrex's abuse like you do. There are things that you can do about it.

BRUUDAS

Like what?

WHITE ALIEN

What about instigating a mutiny? You can give Electrex the boot, and perhaps instill someone who's much more stable, and intelligent as your new leader.

BRUUDAS

First of all, who are you? And secondly who should lead instead of Electrex?

WHITE ALIEN

Right, how rude of me. The name's Ralaez. And as far as who should lead goes, well what's white with a red face?
