FADE IN:

INT. THE TRIBULATION ARENA - TIME UNKNOWN

KA-RAH KHAL sits in his usual chair. FLAMOUC A enters the main part of the arena soon followed by the ERMITH monster.

FLAMOUC A

Ka-rah Khal, Ermith is here.

KA-RAH KHAL

Excellent. (to Ermith) I don't think I have to tell you what I want.

ERMITH

No. In fact I have the perfect plan to cause a massive amount of screams, which we can use to allow Mistress Llyej and the rest of the Three to cross over into the rift. And believe me, when I'm done, the Rangers won't know what hit them.

ANME walks into the arena.

ANME

Well it appears that you might actually have an easier time than usual.

KA-RAH KHAL

Please Anme, Ermith is able to work in water, which as I'm sure you know will counter the Rangers' Feral Cat abilities.

ANME

But what you fail to realize Ka-rah Khal is that the Rangers are now one short.

KA-RAH KAHL

(surprised) Come again?

ANME

The Yellow Ranger is no longer in Las Bestias, and she no longer possesses her morpher. I don't know about you, but this would be the perfect time to not only exploit the Rangers' lack of numbers, but also maybe get the morpher from Chong like you wanted to in the first place.

KA-RAH KHAL

You're right, this would be a good time to do that. However this all depends on what Ermith's plan is.

ERMITH

I was planning on using my Drill Hermit Crab abilities to create an earthquake under the sea, causing a massive tidal wave to drown Las Bestias, and then the resulting screams would be more than enough to bring Llyej here.

ANME

We tried flooding the city all ready. It didn't work.

ERMITH

But I'm going to drown it. Not to mention that the Rangers won't be able to touch me given the fact that they're cats.

KA-RAH KHAL

Very well. Try this plan of yours. However don't come back here if you fail.

ANME

I don't think he could come back here if he failed.

FADE OUT.

EXT. THE STREETS OF LAS BESTIAS - DAY

KEVIN and JORGE are in Jorge's car driving around. Jorge is in the driver's seat, while Kevin sits in the passenger's seat. Neither one of them is talking, but eventually the silence gets to Kevin.

KEVIN

You still mad about the whole Toni thing?

JORGE

I've got nothing more to say about her, that I didn't all ready say the day she left.

KEVIN

Really?

JORGE

(a little mad) It would've at least been nice if she had said her goodbyes in person, than have Sam read a note.

KEVIN

Almost seems like you're more upset that she didn't do that.

JORGE

Don't get me wrong; I'm mad about her leaving too. But did she have to do it in a way that makes her out to be a pain in the butt?

The light at an intersection Jorge is headed toward turns red. Jorge stops, and as he waits for the light to turn green, he and Kevin sniff the air quickly.

KEVIN

It's-

JORGE

I know.

The light turns green, and Jorge turns the car right onto the next block.

EXT. A COASTAL AREA - DAY

Waves crash up against the side of the coast as Kevin and Jorge (both morphed) run up to the area.

KEVIN

Okay this is where the scent led us, but where is it?

JORGE

Good question.

Ermith jumps up and out of the water. Ermith lands before Kevin and Jorge and strikes both of them with his right arm. Kevin and Jorge take the hits and fall back a little.

ERMITH

Neither one of you are going to mess up my plans. And to make sure that happens...

Ermith starts to slash at Kevin and Jorge, with his right arm, until they both manage to get along the edge of the coast. Ermith turns to face Kevin and Jorge, and stretches out both of his arms. Ermith then charges at Kevin and Jorge, and he clotheslines the both of them, taking them deep into the water. Ermith seemingly disappears for a minute while Kevin and Jorge float around submerged.

ERMITH'S VOICE

Primal Beast...Drill Hermit Crab! Drill Strike!

Ermith swims toward Kevin and Jorge, striking them with his right arm, which is now spinning. Ermith swims back and forth toward Kevin, and Jorge striking them several times with his right arm, until they are both forcibly thrown out of the water. They fall onto the coast where they were standing, and power down upon hitting land. They both get to their feet and are completely soaked. Kevin and Jorge ring out some of the water in their clothes.

KEVIN

We need to get to Master Chong.

JORGE

Well we're not taking my car, because
I'm not ruining my leather seats.

FADE OUT. OPENING CREDITS.

FADE IN:

INT. THE MARTIAL ARTS STUDIO - DAY

Kevin and Jorge walk out of the change room wearing their uniforms. MASTER CHONG walks out from the back area of the studio.

MASTER CHONG

Good you're both changed now.

KEVIN

It's lucky that you had extra uniforms.

MASTER CHONG

Well you both needed some dry clothes after your run in with that monster. I just wish that you didn't have to get water all over the floors, but that's neither here nor there right now.

KEVIN

So why weren't we able to fight under water?

MASTER CHONG

Like how actual cats hate being in water, the Feral Cats lose some power when submerged.

JORGE

Wait a minute. When we first became Rangers and formed the Megazord, the city got flooded, and we were fine. Then why-

MASTER CHONG

The combination of the Feral Megazord is different than its individual components. And I'm not sure if you noticed Jorge, but the Feral Megazord looks more like a human than it does a cat.

JORGE

And that's supposed to mean?

MASTER CHONG

When you morph you take on the power of your Primal Beast, in your case the Feral Jaguar. However when Primal Beasts combine, their powers become one, making them more than just their components.

JORGE

Huh?

MASTER CHONG

The Feral Megazord isn't just a cat, plus you weren't submerged when you first formed it. Is that a better explanation?

JORGE

(sarcastically) Well yeah.

KEVIN

So what are we going to do about this?

MASTER CHONG

It just so happens that I know someone who can help you.

JORGE

Let me guess, someone else like Sam or Jack?

MASTER CHONG

Yes, his name is-

MICHELLE walks into the room carrying a fairly lengthy box.

MICHELLE

Gordon Carradine. Well actually it's "Dr. Gordon Carradine", but that doesn't really matter.

KEVIN

So where do we need to go? The hospital?

MASTER CHONG

No. You'll be going to the Las Bestias Aquarium. And you'll be going alone Kevin.

JORGE

Why the aquarium, and why just Kevin?

MICHELLE

Gordon's a marine biologist, and works at the Aquarium.

MASTER CHONG

And as far as Kevin going it alone, well that's because he's the only one of you who doesn't have a secondary Primal Beast.

MICHELLE

And while you're at the aquarium Kevin, could you give Gordon this?

Michelle gives Kevin the box.

KEVIN

Okay.

JORGE

I've got another question?

MASTER CHONG

What?

JORGE

What about finding a replacement for Toni?

MASTER CHONG

We're still working on it. In fact that's what I'll be doing while Kevin's doing his training.

JORGE

And I assume you want me to take care of whatever could come our way if we get attacked again, right?

MASTER CHONG

Of course. Also, Kevin given the Primal Beast that you'll be training for, you might want to go home and grab a few things like a bathing suit and a towel.

KEVIN

What's the Beast?

MASTER CHONG

It's known as the Hydro Shark.

FADE OUT.

FADE IN:

INT. THE LOBBY OF THE LAS BESTIAS AQUARIUM - DAY

Numerous kids and their parents come into the lobby. A little girl who is holding onto her mother's hand, while also holding a penguin stuffed animal walks into the lobby, practically dragging her mother.

LITTLE GIRL

Mommy, I want to go see the penguins.

GIRL'S MOTHER

Just hold on. We'll get there.

The little girl and her mother walk off. Kevin (dressed normally) walks into the lobby holding the box that Michelle gave him, and carrying his backpack on his back. Kevin looks around.

KEVIN

Where could he be?

Kevin wanders around in the lobby a little, until a female tour guide comes in. The tour guide sees a confused look on Kevin's face, and walks over to him.

TOUR GUIDE

Can I help you?

KEVIN

Do you know where Gordon Carradine is?

TOUR GUIDE

He's usually in his office. But beyond that he could be in an area that's past the Great Barrier Reef exhibit. If you want I could take you there.

KEVIN

Okay.

The tour guide starts to lead Kevin down a hall marked "GREAT BARRIER REEF". They both walk through the exhibit surrounded by numerous tanks. Kevin stops for a minute to look at a tank that has a sea anemone and a small school of clownfish. The tour guide goes back to where Kevin is now standing.

TOUR GUIDE

I see you stopped to look at the clownfish.

KEVIN

So which one's Nemo?

TOUR GUIDE

(under her breath) Like I haven't heard that one before.

KEVIN

What?

TOUR GUIDE

Never mind. Shall we?

The tour guide points to further down the exhibit, and Kevin starts to follow her. The tour guide leads Kevin past the exhibit and into an area marked "SEA OF SHARKS". Despite the area being clearly marked, Kevin does not see any of the signs. Kevin and the tour guide enter the area. A tanned man with bleached hair, dressed in a pair of khaki cargo shorts, a white t-shirt, and a Hawaiian shirt, stands in front of one of the tanks. The tour guide leaves the area. Kevin walks up to the man.

KEVIN

Are you Dr. Gordon Carradine?

The tanned man turns to Kevin.

TANNED MAN

You must be Kevin. I just got the call from Bruce. You know you're lucky that I actually have time to do this with you today. Then again I did hear that Jack didn't exactly have a lot of time to train any of you guys. Anyway just call me "Sharky". Almost everyone always seems to, since well you know.

KEVIN

You mean your Primal Instincts?

SHARKY

Yeah.

KEVIN

So what were you looking at?

SHARKY

I was just seeing if Bruce was coming out to play.

KEVIN

But Master-

SHARKY

Bruce is a nickname for one of the great creatures in this tank.

KEVIN

What kind of fish is it?

SHARKY

Charcharadon carcharias.

KEVIN

A what?

SHARKY

Great white shark, so tell me Kevin how much experience do you have with anything relating to water? Besides drinking it of course.

KEVIN

Not much. I barely know how to swim. Why?

SHARKY

As I'm sure you probably know, to obtain the ability to summon another Primal Beast, you must do something that relates to the Beast. Jack's training involves a good memory to unleash the warrior within. Sam's training involves embracing the night. And mine is about submerging yourself in water to reflect and relive a flow of memories.

KEVIN

So what are we going to do? And what kind of memories?

SHARKY

You're going to get a crash course in scuba diving. As for the memories, well they could be anything.

FADE OUT.

FADE IN:

INT. THE MARTIAL ARTS STUDIO - DAY

Michelle sits in a chair off to the side of the studio, with her laptop resting in her lap. The screen of the laptop displays some recent seismic activity located in the Las Bestias area, specifically underwater seismic activity. Master Chong walks into the studio.

MICHELLE

Bruce, come here.

Master Chong walks over to Michelle.

MASTER CHONG

What's going on?

MICHELLE

I've been noticing some seismic activity underwater within the past couple of hours.

MASTER CHONG

So there's going to be some kind of underwater earthquake?

MICHELLE

Possibly, but there's something telling me, that there's something else causing all of this.

MASTER CHONG

Well it could be part of what Ka-rah Khal was doing with that aquatic monster.

MICHELLE

If only we knew what that monster's Primal Beast was.

Jorge walks into the studio.

JORGE

Well after riding around on my Cycle I can honestly say that there isn't anything going on right now.

MASTER CHONG

Question for you Jorge.

JORGE

What?

MASTER CHONG

Did the monster that you and Kevin faced earlier happen to mention what his Primal Beast was?

JORGE

Drill Hermit Crab, I think.

MASTER CHONG

This isn't good.

JORGE

What's going on?

MICHELLE

The Drill Hermit Crab has the ability to bore into any substance, and given the recent seismic activity that's been going on underwater, Ka-rah Khal must be trying to cause a tsunami.

JORGE

But he all ready tried to flood the city once, why would he want to do it again?

MASTER CHONG

Knowing him, just breaking that dam wasn't enough. Plus we managed to clean it up fairly quickly. Then again perhaps he's not trying to just flood the city, but drown it instead.

MICHELLE

And that'd definitely get him the amount of screams that he needs, before-

MASTER CHONG

I know. However I don't think I need to tell you Jorge that you, and Kevin need to stop this plan before anything can happen.

JORGE

Well duh. But doesn't this mostly depend on whether or not Kevin actually manages to get this new Beast?

MASTER CHONG

Of course, but now that I think about it, maybe having Kevin do this training with Sharky isn't such a good idea.

JORGE

Why not?

MASTER CHONG

Sharky's training involves looking at your memories.

MICHELLE

And given Kevin's past, there could be the chance that once he gets into some of his bad memories; he might not want to go on with the training.

JORGE

He better get through this.

MASTER CHONG

Sharky should be able to get Kevin to go on with everything that the training entails, but there's always a chance he can't. Either way, you need to go back out and see if anything else has come up. You can go back to that coastal area that you were at before, for all I care, I just need you to make sure the city's going to be safe for the time being.

JORGE

Fine.

Jorge leaves the studio. Just as Jorge leaves, Master Chong's cell phone rings. He takes it out and answers.

MASTER CHONG

Chong Martial Arts Studio, can I help you? (pause) I see. Well just come here, and I'll see what I can do. (pause) Okay great. Bye.

Master Chong ends the call.

MICHELLE

What was that about?

MASTER CHONG

Let's just say that I now need to get something out of your lab.

FADE OUT.

FADE IN:

INT. A SECLUDED TANK AREA WITHIN THE AQUARIUM - DAY

Kevin and Sharky both walk into the room on a platform the reaches the top of the tank. Kevin is wearing a red and black colored wetsuit, scuba fins on his feet, a scuba tank on his back, and scuba mask on his head. Sharky is wearing almost the exact same thing, with the exception that his wetsuit is in black and aqua. Sharky faces Kevin for a moment.

SHARKY

Think you've got it?

KEVIN

I think so, but everything was so rushed.

SHARKY

Don't worry, we're going to go in together so that you can get a feel for it, and try to let the memories flow. However-

KEVIN

I've got to go in alone for a second time.

SHARKY

Exactly. Think of this first time as training for the actual training. Anyway, let's go.

Kevin and Sharky put their masks over their eyes, and place the mouthpieces of their scuba tanks into their mouths. They both walk over to the edge of the platform and jump into the tank. They start to sink a little before floating about mid-way in the tank. Sharky starts to swim around and Kevin soon follows. As Kevin swims around, he starts to focus not on the path that he is swimming in, but rather what appears to be a street in Las Bestias that he is starting to see in his mind. Part of the street includes a building that has a sign that reads "CHO SUPERMARKET" on one line and "조슈퍼마켓" underneath the first line. The front of the store dissolves and Kevin sees his parents within the store. His father is behind the front counter, while his mother sweeps the floor of the store a little. Kevin then sees himself coming down from a staircase in the back of the shop with his backpack on his back. Kevin walks through the store, waving to both of his parents, as he leaves it.

KEVIN

Is this...?

Kevin continues to see the interior of his parents' store in his mind, as it dissolves back into the front of the store as seen from the streets of Las Bestias. Kevin sees himself walking down the street getting several feet away from the store, just as two men dressed completely in black, with matching ski masks enter the store.

KEVIN (INNER)

(anxious) No. No. No!

Kevin starts to swim toward the top of the tank. Numerous bubbles can be seen as he rises. Once on the surface, Kevin swims toward the platform, and climbs onto it. Anxiously, Kevin starts to take off the scuba tank, mask, and fins. Kevin goes over to one of the walls of the room, and starts to sit in a fetal position. Sharky rises out of the water, and gets onto the platform. Sharky then takes off his fins, mask, and scuba tank and goes over to Kevin.

SHARKY

You okay?

KEVIN

I think I started to see some memories while I was under there.

SHARKY

Really? I didn't think that you'd be able to do it so soon. What'd you see?

KEVIN

My parents, the day that they-

An uneasy look goes over Sharky's face for a moment.

SHARKY

Say no more. But you need to keep up with this or you'll never be able to defeat the monster Ka-rah Khal sent.

KEVIN

I'm not going back in there, if it means-

SHARKY

I guess it's kinda my fault that this happened. I forgot to mention that most times if you only allow your mind to wander, you'll only see bad memories. But since it appears that you were able to take to this sooner than I thought, it'd be a shame to try to not see this through.

KEVIN

But-

SHARKY

I know it seems scary, but to completely master this you must be like an actual shark and keep moving, and not allow yourself to be caught off guard by whatever might come up.

KEVIN

But I'm not a shark. I'm a tiger.

SHARKY

Then prove why you're a tiger. Michelle told me that you were the first one of the Rangers to not only morph, but have your Primal Instincts awakened. And you also proved to be a fierce fighter when you first morphed as well.

KEVIN

Then what do you want me to do?

SHARKY

Show that you're a tiger by showing your strength in the face of the adversity that's in front of you right now. Like you did when you first became the Red Ranger.

KEVIN

I don't know.

SHARKY

You know you can do it. Just believe in yourself. If it'll help, I'll tell you what I always see when I do this.

KEVIN

What?

SHARKY

I see myself at fourteen. I'm in the ocean, paddling the surfboard I had at the time. I managed to swim out to hit a good wave, but instead of riding it, I wipe out.

KEVIN

What then?

SHARKY

I'm in some calm water sitting on my board. I'm miles away from the beach, and to make matters worse, the fin of a great white starts to circle around me.

KEVIN

Wait a minute, is this when-

SHARKY

Yes, it's when my Primal Instincts were awakened. I guess the only reason why I see that is because it reminds me of why I took the path that I did.

KEVIN

What do you mean?

SHARKY

After everything that happened with my Primal Instincts, I started to develop a newfound respect for aquatic life, which is why I became a marine biologist. The thing to keep in mind about this training, is that the reason for the flow of memories is to show you where you've been, the path that it's lead you on, and where you're going to move next. Like I said, you have to be like a real shark, and keep moving on your path. So you have a choice now; are you going to get back into the tank and finish off the training, or are you going to let your bad memories get the better of you?

KEVIN

I guess I'll try to finish the training.

SHARKY

Good, but remember this time you're going in alone.

Kevin gets to his feet. He goes over to where he placed the scuba tank, and puts it on again. He then grabs his mask and fins and puts them back on. Kevin walks over to the edge of the platform and jumps into the tank. Kevin sinks to halfway down the tank before floating in the water. He starts to swim and once again starts to see some memories in his mind. However this time, he sees himself outside of the Chong martial arts studio, surrounded by a group of Khatta Warriors, and an An'xi that has a mantis-like mantle in its forehead. The Khatta Warriors start to close in on Kevin, as a faint red light starts to go over his body. Michelle comes out of the studio carrying a morpher, which then flies over to Kevin, and attaches to his arms. The scene in Kevin's mind dissolves into a destroyed alleyway in Las Bestias where Kevin (morphed) is confronted by the Antism monster. Kevin sees Antism swinging his arms at himself, and him taking the hit and falling to the ground. Kevin then sees himself slowly getting back up, and red energy going over his body. Kevin charges at Antism, and punches him hard. The scene disappears from Kevin's mind, as aqua colored energy starts to go over Kevin's body as he swims around in the tank. Kevin swims to the top of the tank, and the energy disappears. Kevin gets onto the platform, and takes off his fins, mask, and scuba only to notice that Sharky is no longer in the room.

KEVIN

Where'd he go?

Sharky (now dressed normally) comes into the room carrying the box that Kevin had earlier.

SHARKY

I saw the energy that went over your body, and thought it'd be time to give you this.

KEVIN

But this is the thing Michelle wanted me to give you. Why are you giving it to me?

SHARKY

Because it was always meant to go to you.

KEVIN

So what is it?

Sharky opens the box, revealing a shark-like sword.

KEVIN

A sword?

SHARKY

This is the Shark Blade. I figured since both Jack and Sam gave the other Rangers weapons after they completed their Warrior Elephant, and Nocturnal Bat trainings, that I should probably give you something.

KEVIN

Why a sword?

SHARKY

It was Bruce's idea. He said that like how a shark's fin slices through the surface of the water, that you'll be able to do the same with this. Go on take it.

Kevin picks up the Shark Blade. Kevin looks at it for a moment, and grabs onto a part of the Blade's handle that resembles the front half of a shark, and the weapon splits in two.

KEVIN

Did I break it or something?

SHARKY

I guess this thing must be able to split in two. I didn't really say much about what I wanted with it, and just let Michelle do her thing. Anyway I think you might want to change into your normal clothes, because you're now going to have the chance to try this thing out.

FADE OUT.

FADE IN:

EXT. THE COASTAL AREA - DAY

Flamouca stands around looking down into the water.

FLAMOUC A

He's taking too long with this.

The sound of a motorcycle can be heard as Jorge (morphed) rides up to the area on his Stalk Cycle. Jorge gets off of the Cycle and confronts Flamouca. Flamouca turns to see Jorge.

JORGE

What are you doing here?

FLAMOUC A

Just making sure Ermith completes his mission. I'd ask you the same question, but I'd get the same answer people like you would always give. So instead I'm just going to...

Flamouca charges at Jorge, transforming into her armor, and holding onto both of her short swords. Flamouca swipes one of her swords at Jorge, but he jumps back and dodges the attack. Flamouca tries another swipe at Jorge, but once again he dodges the attack.

JORGE

Double Bat Cutter!

A pair of Bat Cutters form in Jorge's hands, just as Flamouca tries to swipe at him again. However, this time Jorge blocks the attack with one of the Cutters. Jorge and Flamouca start to swipe at each other with their respective weapons, and their weapons clang off of each other. Jorge manages to get a good hit in on Flamouca, which causes her to fall back a few feet, and land on her knees. Jorge starts to walk toward Flamouca, but she opens her mouth, and launches her Tongue Blade at Jorge. The Tongue Blade rapidly hits Jorge several times, and he takes the hits falling back a little. Jorge and Flamouca both get back to their feet, and start to circle around each other a little.

FLAMOUC A

You're better than I remembered.

JORGE

Well it's not like I haven't been training since the last time we fought like this. And speaking of fighting, why are you doing this now?

FLAMOUCUA

No reason in particular. I'm just a little bored right. You probably wouldn't believe the lack of entertainment that looking down at water has.

JORGE

It's probably no different than watching grass grow.

FLAMOUCUA

So tell me, what happened to your little cheetah friend?

JORGE

She just left us. That's all you need to know.

FLAMOUCUA

And where's the other idiot right now?

JORGE

Training.

FLAMOUCUA

Like it's really going to make any difference. You know this is starting to get a little tiring, so maybe I should just call some Khatta Warriors to finish you off.

JORGE

Please these Bat Cutters of mine were able to take care of Ranec and Rowc no problem. They'd probably go through the Khatta Warriors without any problems.

FLAMOUCUA

Fine then I'll just have to do it myself.

Flamouca charges at Jorge, and tries to strike him with her swords, but he blocks the attack and even manages to get in a quick slash in on Flamouca with one of the Cutters. Flamouca falls back a little. Kevin (morphed) comes running up to the area.

FLAMOUC A

Great, he's here now. Ermith!

Ermith jumps up and out of the water, landing beside Flamouca.

ERMITH

What?

FLAMOUC A

Put your drilling on hold for now. We need to take care of the Rangers first.

ERMITH

Whatever.

Flamouca reverts back to her usual self, and turns her head in Kevin and Jorge's direction.

FLAMOUC A

Bye Rangers.

Flamouca disappears.

ERMITH

Well this should be easy, since neither of you could handle me before.

KEVIN

I don't think so.

ERMITH

Really? And why's that?

KEVIN

I just went through some training to take care of you.

ERMITH

Like it's really going to do anything.

KEVIN

Shark Blade!

The Shark Blade forms in Kevin's right hand.

JORGE

So you got a new weapon too?

KEVIN

Yeah.

ERMITH

Like some sword is going to stop me.

Ermith charges at Kevin, and tries to strike him with his right arm, but Kevin dodges the attack, and gives Ermith a hard slash with the Blade. Ermith falls back a little, but charges at Kevin again only to get a few more slashes from Kevin with the Blade.

ERMITH

Looks like the direct approach isn't going to work.

Ermith holds up his left hand, and creates a ball of dark energy. Ermith fires the ball at Kevin, but Kevin quickly splits the Blade in two, and uses both parts to deflect the ball back at Ermith. Ermith takes the hit and falls back a little. Kevin then charges at Ermith.

KEVIN

Blade Strike!

Kevin gives Ermith hard slashes from both Blades. Ermith falls down, and Kevin combines the two blades. As Ermith gets back to his feet, Kevin points the end of the Blade at Ermith, and water starts to go over the Blade.

KEVIN

Shark Blade, Hydro Strike!

The area surrounding Kevin floods with water, and he starts to wave the Blade around in a circular motion causing some water to be kicked up, before waving the Blade back and forth. Ermith charges at Kevin, and tries to strike Kevin with his right arm, but Kevin blocks the attack and slashes Ermith several times with the Blade. Kevin raises the Blade and a tidal wave forms behind him.

KEVIN

Shark Blade, Tidal Strike!

Kevin gives Ermith a high-powered slash with the Blade, and Ermith takes the hit. The water disappears, and Ermith falls to the ground as explosions go over his body. Jorge comes up to Kevin.

JORGE

Not bad. Looks like the training went well.

Ermith gets back to his feet.

ERMITH

This isn't over Rangers, I know you're one short, so it's time to exploit that weakness.

Ermith does a couple hand movements, and grows to gigantic size. Kevin and Jorge look up at Ermith.

KEVIN

Without Toni we can't-

The sound of a motorcycle can be heard in the distance as the YELLOW RANGER rides up to Kevin and Jorge on the Yellow Stalk Cycle. The Yellow Ranger gets off of the Cycle and goes over to Kevin and Jorge.

JORGE

So Chong found-

The Yellow Ranger speaks in a partially mechanized voice.

YELLOW RANGER

Yeah he did. So how about we call the Cats and take care of this thing?

Kevin, Jorge and the Yellow Ranger all press the buttons in their right hand morpher parts.

KEVIN, JORGE, AND THE YELLOW RANGER

Feral Cats, unleash!

Kevin, Jorge and the Yellow Ranger raise their right hands, and unleash the Feral Cats. They all jump up and into their respective Cat, and the Feral Cats combine.

KEVIN, JORGE AND THE YELLOW RANGER

Feral Megazord, ready to strike!

Ermith goes into the water.

ERMITH

See you later Rangers!

Inside of the Feral Megazord, Kevin, Jorge and the Yellow Ranger stand behind their respective podiums.

YELLOW RANGER

He's gone into the water?

KEVIN

Looks like it might be time to use my new Primal Beast.

JORGE

I was wondering when we were going to see that.

Aqua colored energy goes Kevin's body as he presses the buttons on his right hand morpher part.

KEVIN

Hydro Shark, unleash!

Kevin raises his right hand. Outside aqua colored energy goes over the Feral Megazord's body, and it raises its right hand unleashing the energy. The energy takes the form of the Hydro Shark. Inside of the Feral Megazord, Kevin, Jorge, and the Yellow Ranger press the buttons on their right hand morpher parts.

KEVIN, JORGE, AND THE YELLOW RANGER

Hydro Shark combine!

Outside the Hydro Shark separates into three sections, and combines with the Feral Megazord.

KEVIN, JORGE, AND THE YELLOW RANGER

Feral Megazord, Hydro Fin!

The Feral Megazord jumps into the water, and swims toward where Ermith is now standing. The Feral Megazord touches the ocean floor, and faces Ermith. Ermith and the Feral Megazord charge at each other. Ermith tries to strike the Feral Megazord with his right arm, but the Feral Megazord blocks the attack with its right hand Fin Saber, before striking Ermith with its left hand Fin Saber. The Feral Megazord then strikes Ermith with both of the Fin Sabers, and Ermith goes flying back.

ERMITH

Drill Strike!

Ermith strikes the Feral Megazord with his right arm, and the Feral Megazord takes the hit. The Feral Megazord goes flying back, but kicks itself off of a nearby rock formation, and starts to swim toward Ermith. Ermith gets out of the path of the Feral Megazord by using the shells on his body to blend in with some nearby rocks. The Feral Megazord continues on its path.

KEVIN

We can see you.

The Feral Megazord swims into the rocks that Ermith is hiding behind, destroying them, and hitting Ermith as well. The Feral Megazord turns around and swims toward Ermith landing on the ocean floor again.

ERMITH

I never thought a bunch of cats could stand being in water like this. Either way...Drill Strike!

Ermith runs toward the Feral Megazord and jumps up with his right arm spinning. Ermith swims toward the Feral Megazord. The gills on the Feral Megazord's helmet light up, and the Feral Megazord jumps up and kicks itself off of the same rock formation as before. Inside of the Feral Megazord Kevin, Jorge, and the Yellow Ranger stand behind their podiums. They wave their right hands over their energy orbs, soon followed by their left hand.

KEVIN, JORGE, AND THE YELLOW RANGER
Saber Strike!

Outside the Feral Megazord's upper half starts to spin around as it swims toward Ermith. The Feral Megazord hits Ermith striking him several times. The Feral Megazord swims up and out of the water, just as Ermith explodes.

INT. THE TRIBULATION ARENA - TIME UNKNOWN

Ka-rah Khal sits in his chair as Flamouca enters the arena.

KA-RAH KHAL

What do you have to say for yourself?

FLAMOUC A

How were we supposed to know that the Rangers would develop aquatic abilities?

KA-RAH KHAL

Please, given that Chong has sent them to a few of my other students for more training than he could do, you should've figured that out.

FLAMOUC A

And it's not like you did either.

KA-RAH KHAL

Flamouca don't test me right now, I'm not in the mood. Especially considering that I'm more than a little irritable at the moment.

Ka-rah Khal rises from his chair.

FLAMOUC A

Where are you going?

KA-RAH KHAL

To my quarters to meditate, I need to reflect on the way our battle with the Rangers has gone so far. And I don't want to be disturbed while I'm meditating. Also if Anme tries to pull another stunt like he did when Corpions appeared, he'll suffer some great repercussions.

Ka-rah Khal leaves the arena, just as Anme enters.

ANME

Where's he going?

FLAMOUC A

To relax for a while. And he doesn't want you trying to fill his shoes while he's busy meditating.

ANME

Well there goes my fun.

FLAMOUC A

Wait, you're actually going to follow the master's orders for once? Or are you just doing this to bide some time?

ANME

Just wait and see Flamouca. Just wait and see.

FADE OUT.

INT. THE MARTIAL ARTS STUDIO - DAY

Master Chong, Michelle, and Sharky stand around.

SHARKY

You know that sword idea of yours wasn't a bad one. Kevin seemed to use it quite well.

MICHELLE

Hey he only gave you the idea, who was the one that actually acted as your blacksmith for it?

SHARKY

Like I could forget about you, but wouldn't you agree that it'd be redundant to say that your weapons are the best?

MICHELLE

Well yeah.

MASTER CHONG

Just don't get too arrogant about this Michelle. Anyway what you told me about Kevin's training does worry me somewhat.

SHARKY

How come?

MASTER CHONG

It's just that it seemed like Kevin practically shut down after what happened with his parents, and I was a little afraid that the same would happen with him reliving the memories during your training. But it seems like you gave him the right motivation.

SHARKY

Well it did take some convincing to get him to go back on it, but what matters is that he actually passed, right?

MASTER CHONG

I guess you're right.

Kevin, Jorge, and the Yellow Ranger enter the studio.

MASTER CHONG

Excellent work all of you, especially you Kevin.

KEVIN

Thanks.

SHARKY

You did really well with your new Hydro Shark powers.

JORGE

Yeah. But how did you know to actually call for the Hydro Shark without needing to be told?

KEVIN

I just thought that my training with Sharky wouldn't be any different than your training with Sam.

JORGE

Well that takes care of one mystery. The other one is still wearing spandex. (to the Yellow Ranger) So who are you?

YELLOW RANGER

I guess there's only way to do this so power down!

The Yellow Ranger's suit becomes yellow energy. The energy stays over the Yellow Ranger's body for a few moments. When the energy clears, the Yellow Ranger is revealed to be Toni.
