INT. THE CELLBLOCK IN THE FORTRESS - TIME UNKNOWN

MASTER CHONG paces around in his cell.

ASLEC'S VOICE

Should you really be pacing around like that? Don't you need to rest up for you duel with Ka-rah Khal?

MASTER CHONG

I know I need to rest. But the more that I think about everything, the more it's starting to make me nervous.

ASLEC'S VOICE

Just relax. It's all in your head.

MASTER CHONG

I know.

ASLEC'S VOICE

Speaking of thinking about things, have you given any thought as to what I proposed to you earlier?

MASTER CHONG

You mean joining forces should I defeat Ka-rah Khal?

ASLEC'S VOICE

Yes. Well have you?

MASTER CHONG

I'm still not sure. How do I know you won't betray me sometime down the line?

ASLEC'S VOICE

We are both enemies of Ka-rah Khal. That should make us friends.

MASTER CHONG

But the enemy of your enemy isn't always your friend.

ASLEC'S VOICE

I see. You're probably unsure if you can trust me, right?

MASTER CHONG

Yeah.

ASLEC'S VOICE

Well if it's any consolation, if I were you I'd be unsure if I could trust me too.

MASTER CHONG

Well at least you admit it.

The sound of Aslec laughing can be heard coming out of his cell.

ASLEC'S VOICE

Very true.

KA-RAH KHAL walks up to Master Chong's cell.

KA-RAH KHAL

Are you ready to potentially meet your end Chong?

MASTER CHONG

I've been ready since I agreed to this yesterday, or earlier today, or whenever I agreed to this duel.

KA-RAH KHAL

I take it you're not used to the lack of actual time that exists this rift.

MASTER CHONG

Not to mention that my watch stopped when you brought me down here.

KA-RAH KHAL

Even still being down here like this must be driving you mad.

MASTER CHONG

Actually no. As it turns out, I had someone to talk to.

KA-RAH KHAL

I see.

Ka-rah Khal turns around and walks over to the door of Aslec's cell.

KA-RAH KHAL

I don't remember EVER giving you permission to do anything but sit in there.

Ka-rah Khal makes a fist with his right hand, and pounds the door hard.

KA-RAH KHAL

You keep quiet, or you'll be next on my extermination list.

Ka-rah Khal walks back over to Master Chong's cell.

KA-RAH KHAL

Now where were we?

MASTER CHONG

It appears that you were expecting my seclusion in here to drive me mad.

KA-RAH KHAL

Well I can see how well that turned out. But still should things go my way today, I'll have the biggest thorn in my paw removed.

FADE OUT. OPENING CREDITS.

FADE IN:

EXT. A FOOTBALL FIELD - DAY

KEVIN, JORGE, TONI, JACK, SAM (dressed in track pants and a t-shirt), and SHARKY all walk to the field, specifically to a set of bleachers where STEPHEN (in sweat pants and a t-shirt), DEREK, and LILY are standing.

JACK

Would you mind telling me Derek why we all had to be here and not just Jorge?

DEREK

Simple. I said that Jorge had to prove his mettle on the gridiron, and a one-on-one football game just can't be done.

JORGE

Yes it could.

DEREK

True, but there's no fun in it.

JORGE

So what's the deal with this?

DEREK

We're playing flag football. I would've actually made this a five-on-five thing, but that was before I realized that Michelle has quite a bit of work to do today. So four-on-four isn't bad, and this way my knee injury doesn't potentially act up on me.

SHARKY

So what's the deal for the teams?

DEREK

Jorge, you, Kevin, Toni, and Sam will be one team. And Jack, Sharky, Stephen and Lily will be the other.

SAM

Why am I on Jorge's team?

DEREK

I just figured that since you were the last one to train him, that you being with him would be a natural fit. Anyway let's just start this so everyone, grab your flags. Jorge's team has the blue ones, and Stephen's team is in red.

Kevin, Jorge, Toni, Jack, Sam, and Sharky go over to the bleachers. Kevin, Jorge, Toni, and Sam each grab two pairs of the blue flags and tuck them around the waists of their pants. Jorge takes off his blazer and sets it on one of the seats of the bleachers. Jack, Sharky, Stephen, and Lily all grab two pairs of the red flags and tuck them into the waists of their pants. Derek picks up a football that is resting on one of the footrests of the bleachers and hands it to Jorge.

DEREK

Your team will do the kickoff.

Kevin, Jorge, Toni, Jack, Sam, Sharky, Stephen, and Lily break off into their respective teams and take to the field. Kevin, Jorge, Toni, and Sam all get into a huddle.

SAM

So how are we doing this?

JORGE

I don't know. It's been so long since I've played any kind of football.

TONI

And you're the one who has to prove his mettle here.

JORGE

Don't-

KEVIN

How about I hold the ball and you kick Jorge.

JORGE

This is surprising. You're actually taking some initiative.

KEVIN

Well I am the one who needs to light a fire in his heart to become the leader I'm supposed to be.

SAM

Anyway can we just do this?

Jorge gives Kevin the ball. Kevin, Jorge, Toni, and Sam walk up to the middle of the field. Kevin crouches down and holds the ball upright. Toni, Jorge, and Sam (in that order) line up behind Kevin, while Jack, Sharky, Stephen, and Lily line up on the field on the opposite side from the others. Jorge runs toward where Kevin is holding the ball, and as he approaches Kevin, he kicks the ball sending it flying toward the other team. Stephen catches the ball and he, Jack, Sharky, and Lily charge toward Kevin, Jorge, Toni, and Sam.

DISSOLVE TO:

EXT. THE FOOTBALL FIELD - DAY

Minutes later, Jorge is now in possession of the ball running toward the end of the field he his facing. Jack, Sharky, Stephen, and Lily charge toward him, but Kevin, Toni, and Sam manage to block the four of them allowing Jorge a clear path to the end zone. Jorge runs toward the end zone, and spikes the ball onto the ground. Derek blows in a whistle, and everyone walks over to him.

DEREK

And that's the end of the game. Great game everyone.

JORGE

So did I prove my "mettle on the gridiron"?

DEREK

I'll tell you later.

STEPHEN

But for now, Kevin you've got to come with me to the Las Bestias Zoo.

LILY

And Toni we've got to go to the Las Bestias Aquarium.

FADE OUT.

FADE IN:

INT. THE PENGUIN HABITAT AT THE LAS BESTIAS AQUARIUM - DAY

The penguins within the habitat waddle around the area. Some jump into the water tank and swim around, and a few just stand around. The door at the back of the habitat opens, and Toni and Lily, both wearing parkas over their clothes walk into the habitat, carrying buckets of fish. A couple penguins waddle up to them, and Toni quickly grabs a fish and throws it so that the penguins go after it.

LILY

Did you throw that fish just to get those penguins away from you?

TONI

A little.

LILY

They're gentle creatures, and they wouldn't hurt you. In fact they don't even fear humans. Like I said last night, you're too uppity. You need to chill out.

TONI

But did you have to be so literal about it?

LILY

Remember it's the Ice Claw Penguin you're trying to train for. And it's not like I can help the fact that penguins are Antarctic creatures that can only survive in these conditions.

TONI

But it's so cold in here.

LILY

Will you just relax and endure what I'm trying to do here?

TONI

Fine.

LILY

Just out of curiosity, were you this uppity when Jack trained you for the Warrior Elephant?

Lily picks up some fish from her bucket and throws it towards the penguins.

TONI

Why do you ask?

LILY

I don't know. It's just a feeling that I've got. So were you?

TONI

I don't know. There was this baby elephant that kept bothering me when we were trying to get Jack to train us.

LILY

How'd you react to it?

TONI

I tried walking away from it. I tried to swat away its trunk. And then it sprayed water on me.

LILY

But it's just a baby. It was probably only trying to play with you. I guess my only question for you now is why are you this uptight?

Toni shoots Lily an evil look.

LILY

C'mon I'm trying to help you out here.

TONI

I don't know maybe it's the way I was raised. But then again you'd probably be like this too if you were raised by a single mother in Manhattan.

LILY

Yeah maybe, but that doesn't mean that you have be like so uptight. So while we're in here, just throw the penguins their fish, and try to let the temperature in here try to relax you.

Toni and Lily start to pick up and throw their fish toward the penguins.

TONI

So how can you stand being in places this cold?

LILY

It comes with being a pro snowboarder. Besides I always used to go skiing with my parents when I was younger. Although one of those times was the first time I strapped a snowboard to my feet.

TONI

Let me guess that was also when your Primal Instincts were awakened.

LILY

Yeah. I wiped out on my board, and then got caught in a small avalanche. The only thing that got me through everything was Willy.

TONI

Willy?

LILY

It was a small stuffed animal I always used to carry around with me. I actually still carry it when I'm competing, because it's also my good luck charm. I don't think I need to tell you what kind of animal it was.

TONI

No.

Toni picks up a fish and throws it toward some of the penguins. Toni also throws a few more fish, and actually starts to look as if she is starting to relax a little. Lily notices this, and a partial smile starts to go over her face. A few moments later, Lily sees a little pale orange colored energy going over Toni's body.

FADE OUT.

FADE IN:

EXT. THE GORILLA PAVILION AT THE LAS BESTIAS ZOO - DAY

A gorilla within the enclosure sits along the edge of the enclosure, staring out at the people who are passing by. Kevin and Stephen (dressed normally) walk up to the pavilion and the gorilla turns its focus solely on Kevin, and even raises its right hand up against the fence.

KEVIN

This is the second time an animal at a zoo stared at me like this.

STEPHEN

Really? What was the first?

KEVIN

It was with a tiger the day I got my morpher.

STEPHEN

(to himself) Hmmmm...maybe this is a good sign.

KEVIN

So why are we here at the zoo?

STEPHEN

Just as Lily brought Toni to the Aquarium to feed the penguins to try to chill out, we're just going to pay a visit to the gorillas, and then maybe do a bit of a campfire later.

KEVIN

Here in the zoo?

STEPHEN

Actually near that quarry you fought last time. And Michelle's going to bring something over for you Jorge, and Toni.

Kevin partially turns his head away from the gorilla enclosure keeping one eye on the enclosure and the other on Stephen. The gorilla that was staring at Kevin, turns around and walks away, returning moments later with a small tree branch in hand. The gorilla then starts to swing the branch. Stephen notices this, and laughs a little.

KEVIN

What?

STEPHEN

Intelligent creatures, aren't they?

KEVIN

The gorillas?

STEPHEN

Of course. Just look at the one that was staring at you.

Kevin turns his head to look directly at the gorilla again. The gorilla sees that Kevin is looking at it, and drops the branch.

STEPHEN

You do know why the gorilla was waving that branch, right?

KEVIN

Was it trying to get my attention or something?

STEPHEN

That's exactly what it was doing. In fact it's something that a few gorillas I came in contact with in Africa did.

KEVIN

So was the Africa thing when your Primal Instincts awakened?

STEPHEN

No actually. The mansion my parents had when I was twelve caught fire, and most of my family barely managed to escape, but I on the other hand not only managed to escape, I also managed to take a stuffed gorilla toy that I had with me. That's when my Instincts awakened and shortly after is when I met up with Master Li. However I never really did see eye to eye with Master Li, and I guess part of the problem was when he teamed me up with Derek and Lily. Either way I eventually went off to Africa to live among the gorillas for a while. And I finally learned to fully control my Primal Instincts after doing some training in China for a while. I can't say that I know for sure how Derek and Lily managed to finally control their Instincts. But there is something that I do know.

KEVIN

What?

STEPHEN

I'll be frank with you. I don't know why you, Jorge, and Toni want the power of the Claw Beasts. They're not as strong as say the Feral Tiger or Hydro Shark.

KEVIN

But when I managed to tap into the power when fighting Anme yesterday, it seemed so strong.

STEPHEN

It does at first, but then again some things always feel strong before you realize how weak they really are. I was just lucky that I could finally master the Fire Claw Gorilla without having to be apart of some team with two others. But that doesn't matter now, because you're going to make me fire.

FADE OUT.

FADE IN:

EXT. AN AREA NEAR A QUARRY - DAY

Stephen sits on a log reading a newspaper. Kevin walks up to the area carrying some wood, and goes over to a circle of stones. Kevin sets the wood down and starts to arrange some of the pieces in the shape of a teepee within the stone circle.

STEPHEN

What are you going to use to actually get the fire started?

Kevin looks over at Stephen and sees the newspaper. Kevin walks over to Stephen, grabs the paper out of his hands, and starts to tear the paper. Kevin walks back to the stone circle, and places the paper within the pieces of wood that he has all ready arranged. Kevin then places the last couple of wood pieces on the teepee, and takes out a matchbook. Kevin opens the matchbook, rips out a match, and strikes it causing the match to light. Kevin places the match onto the newspaper and it ignites. The fire starts to burn the newspaper, which also starts to go onto the wood. A few moments later a fairly decent fire starts to burn.

STEPHEN

Good job. Although I do wish you would've asked me to use that paper first. I would've at least given you the classifieds or society page.

Jorge, Toni, Derek, and Lily walk up to the area. Toni stands to Jorge's right, looking at Stephen, while Derek and Lily walk over to him.

STEPHEN

So how'd the other activities go?

DEREK

Well you all ready know about Jorge.

LILY

And I'd say Toni managed to chill out a little when we fed the penguins.

JORGE

(partially muttering) About time.

Toni jabs Jorge a little with her left elbow.

DEREK

So what about Kevin?

STEPHEN

In all honesty, I'd say that he hasn't lit a fire in his heart to become the leader he's supposed to be.

KEVIN

(surprised) What?!

STEPHEN

I haven't noticed anything to make me think otherwise. Besides I don't think that the power of a Claw Beast is-

DEREK

Here we go again.

STEPHEN

What?

LILY

Why do you always have to seem like you're better than other people. No wonder you had that falling out with Master Li.

FEMALE VOICE

And no wonder you never got along with Bruce.

Kevin, Jorge, Toni, Stephen, Derek, and Lily all turn their heads to see MICHELLE carrying a fairly large briefcase.

MICHELLE

Face it Stephen, your elitist nature never really allows you to see what's really going on. I know you think that the power of the Claw Beasts isn't that strong, but as Bruce would probably say right about now, you may have mastered a Claw Beast, but you don't know what it really means to have its power. Which is why Kevin is going to get what I've made no matter what you say.

TONI

So what did you make?

Michelle opens up the briefcase revealing three weapons that have claws on them. Each of these weapons is in each Ranger's color.

JORGE

So what are these?

MICHELLE

These are the Claw Grips. I designed them to be powered by Claw Beast energy. But as always when creating new equipment like this, I'm not sure how it's going to react with your normal powers.

Kevin, Jorge, and Toni walk up to Michelle and pick up the Claw Grip that is in their respective color. Kevin squeezes handle of his Claw Grip a little.

KEVIN

So we just have to squeeze the handle to use these things?

MICHELLE

There's also a button on the side that'll flip the claws out.

Kevin pauses for a moment, and sniffs the air. Jorge and Toni do the same.

KEVIN

They're here. We should get going.

FADE OUT.

FADE IN:

EXT. A QUARRY - DAY

Ka-rah Khal, a handcuffed Master Chong, ANME, ABUTOK, and UWAGAK stand around in the quarry.

KA-RAH KHAL

Well the three of you know the plan.
You keep the Rangers busy, while Chong and I finally battle it out.

ANME

Let's just hope for your sake he goes down easy.

MASTER CHONG

I wouldn't count on it Anme. Not to mention that there's something telling me that my Rangers might be different today.

ANME

Right.

UWAGAK

Like they're really going to do any harm to us.

ABUTOK

Besides we beat them without breaking a sweat last time. That is if Uwagak and I could sweat.

KA-RAH KHAL

Either way, keep the Rangers busy. We all have our roles to play in this.
Remember Anme, Flamouca is busy trying to get another Fallen to potentially help Abutok and Uwagak. Even if you might need her, don't call her.

ANME

I won't. Believe me.

KA-RAH KHAL

Come Chong, you're about to potentially face your end.

Ka-rah Khal and Master Chong disappear. As soon as Ka-rah Khal, and Master Chong are out of sight, Kevin, Jorge, and Toni all come up to the area with their Claw Grips in hand.

ANME

About time you showed up. And believe me when I say that those new weapons of yours won't help you much.

JORGE

Well we'll see about that.

KEVIN

So let's do it.

Kevin, Jorge, and Toni set the Claw Grips down, and their bracelets become their morphers. They all do their morph hand movements.

KEVIN, JORGE, AND TONI

Unleash the beast!

Kevin, Jorge, and Toni all morph. After morphing they pick up their Claw Grips.

JORGE

Okay let's see what these things can do.

Jorge squeezes the handle of his Grip, and presses the button on the side. However, nothing happens.

JORGE

What?

TONI

Let me see.

Toni squeezes the handle of her Grip, and presses the button on the side. As with Jorge, nothing happens.

TONI

This can't be. A weapon of Michelle's has never failed like this.

KEVIN

Maybe we're not supposed to just use these things like this.

ANME

Well however you're supposed to do it, it doesn't matter. Abutok, Uwagak, get them!

Abutok, and Uwagak charge at Kevin, Jorge, and Toni while Anme quickly transforms into his armor. Anme punches Kevin a few times; Abutok slashes at Jorge with his staff, while Uwagak slashes at Toni with his staff.

UWAGAK

Are all of your weapons useless, or do not know how to use them effectively?

TONI

See for yourself. Elephant Flail!

The Elephant Flail forms in Toni's hands, and she starts to swing the ball back and forth before launching it at Uwagak. However Uwagak manages to purposely wrap the chain of the Flail around his staff, and pulls the Flail out of Toni's hands. Uwagak then twirls his staff a little before swinging it, causing the Flail to go flying in Toni's direction. The Flail hits Toni, and knocks her to the ground. In their area, Jorge is trying to block several swings from Abutok's staff with two Bat Cutters. Abutok tries to slash at Jorge, but he back flips away from the attack and throws both of the Cutters at Abutok. The Bat Cutters spin and fan out their additional blades as they fly toward Abutok. However Abutok blocks both of them with his staff and launches a high-powered slash on Jorge that knocks him down.

ABUTOK

If that weapon didn't work on me the first time, what makes you so sure that it'd work on me again?

In their area Kevin is trying to block several incoming attacks from Anme with his Shark Blade in dual mode. Anme stops his punches and Kevin tries to slash at Anme a few times, but the attacks do not seem to do much damage.

ANME

Pathetic just like last time. But I can't help but wonder; where's that power you used the last time we did this?

KEVIN

Uh...

ANME

Just what I thought, but now you really should start preparing to meet oblivion.

Anme gives Kevin a hard roundhouse kick with his right foot. Kevin starts to go flying back. Jorge and Toni regroup, only to be hit by Kevin, and fall down again.

ANME

Primal Beast...Dark Lion! Pounce Strike!

Anme releases a massive amount of yellow energy that takes the form of an energy version of the Dark Lion. The Dark Lion then charges toward Kevin, Jorge, and Toni and pounces on them. The force of the attack causes Kevin, Jorge and Toni to fall to the ground unmorphed.

ANME

Soon all that you know will be no more.
And there will be no one but you to blame for it. But luckily you won't be around long enough to really blame yourselves.

JORGE

So much for the training that Stephen,
Derek, and Lily gave us.

TONI

They only had us do that so they could consider us for training.

JORGE

Then why'd it feel like the stuff that Jack, Sam, and Sharky had us do?

KEVIN

(struggling) Got to keep going.

Kevin slowly starts to get back to his feet.

JORGE

Kevin it's hopeless. They beat us.

KEVIN

(struggling) Need to defeat Anme.

Kevin rises even more almost standing fully erect.

TONI

I don't think he got the message.

KEVIN

(struggling) Can't let them win.

Kevin fully stands up straight.

KEVIN

Have to save everyone!

The pale orange energy starts to go over Kevin's body.

ANME

It can't be.

The energy remains over Kevin's body for so long that he morphs quickly.

KEVIN

Claw Grip!

Kevin's Claw Grip forms in his right hand and he squeezes the handle. The sound of power surging through the Claw Grip can be heard, as Kevin raises it above his head. Kevin then brings the Claw Grip down in front of him with his left hand over the side button.

KEVIN

Unleash the Claw Beast!

Kevin presses the button and the claws on the Grip flip out. With the claws out Kevin's suit starts to change into a primarily white and red version, with silver stripes, jets on his shoulders, a red version of the Primal Claw symbol on his chest, and a slightly different helmet. The jets on Kevin's shoulders power up and he goes flying toward Anme. Upon approaching Anme, Kevin strikes him with the Claw Grip, which sends Anme flying back into the side of a cliff causing an indent. Kevin then goes over to Jorge and Toni and helps them up.

JORGE

What is this form?

TONI

Well if it was made through the power of the Claw Beasts, then maybe we should call it-

KEVIN

Claw Form.

JORGE

But how were you able to morph into it?

KEVIN

Maybe a fire really has been lit in my heart, to become the leader I'm supposed to be.

TONI

Well you were the first to have your Primal Instincts awakened and morph, and now this.

KEVIN

And you actually seem fairly calm about this Toni.

Toni's eyes widen a little.

TONI

That's strange. I really don't feel all that wound up like I normally would be about now.

JORGE

Looks like you really have chilled out.

KEVIN

And I don't care what Derek might say Jorge, but I think you definitely proved yourself on that football field today.

TONI

Yeah.

Claw Beast energy starts to go over Jorge and Toni's bodies, causing them to morph quickly.

JORGE

Well let's do this.

TONI

Yeah.

JORGE AND TONI

Claw Grip!

Jorge and Toni's Claw Grips form in their right hands. They both squeeze their handles, and hold their Grips out in front of them.

JORGE AND TONI

Unleash the Claw Beast!

Jorge and Toni press the side button on their Grips, the claws flip, and they both morph to Claw Form. Anme gets out of the indent in the cliff. Abutok and Uwagak come up beside him.

ANME

So you've got some new form, big deal. You're still the same weaklings I've fought in the past.

ABUTOK

Besides who do the three of you think you are?

KEVIN

Power of the tiger, Red Ranger!

TONI

Power of the cheetah, Yellow Ranger!

JORGE

Power of the jaguar, Blue Ranger!

KEVIN, JORGE, AND TONI

Guardians of the urban jungle! Power Rangers...Primal Strike!

KEVIN

Let's do it!

JORGE AND TONI

Right!

The jets on Jorge and Toni's shoulders star up and they both fly toward Abutok, and Uwagak. Anme charges at Kevin. In their area, Abutok tries to slash at Jorge with his staff, but Jorge dodges the attack and strikes Abutok hard with his Claw Grip. The force of Jorge's attack is so powerful that Abutok falls off the side of a cliff, onto the ground below. Jorge jumps off of the cliff and the retro jets within the rosettes on his suit fire up, before Jorge's shoulder jets start causing Jorge to fly toward Abutok.

ABUTOK

Like this new flight ability is actually going to do anything.

JORGE

Let's just see about that.

Jorge winds back his Claw Grip, slashing the air in front of Abutok. The force of the slash causes three giant metal blades to form, which then fly toward Abutok causing him to fall to the ground, and explode. In their area Toni strikes Uwagak a couple of times, but Uwagak manages to block one of the attacks. A cooling mist forms over the claws on Toni's grip, and she touches it to Uwagak's staff, which causes it to be covered in ice. Toni then strikes the staff and it breaks into numerous pieces.

UWAGAK

You'll pay for that!

TONI

I don't think so.

Toni jumps up and the jets on her shoulders start up causing her to fly toward Uwagak. The cooling mist appears on the claws of her grip again, and when Toni reaches Uwagak she touches him with the claws, covering him with ice. Toni lands and gives Uwagak a hard slash with her Claw Grip, which causes him to fall down and explode. In their area Anme tries to punch Kevin, but Kevin blocks the attack. Fire forms over the claws on Kevin's Grip, and Kevin then starts to slash at Anme with his Grip a few times. Anme takes the hits and flies back a little. The jets on Kevin's shoulders start up just as more fire forms on the claws of his Grip. Kevin jumps up, spinning in mid air, and then strikes Anme with his Grip. Anme takes the hit and goes flying back into another cliff making an indent. However this time when Anme falls out of the indent he reverts back to his normal self. Jorge and Toni meet up with Kevin.

ANME

The battle's not over yet Rangers!
Abutok! Uwagak!

Anme disappears as Abutok and Uwagak grow to gigantic size, with several rock formations surrounding them.

JORGE

They grew?

TONI

I guess it's time for the Feral Cats.

KEVIN

No. We have the power of the Claw Beasts. Let's summon them.

JORGE

Good idea.

TONI

Yeah.

Claw Beast energy goes over Kevin's body.

KEVIN

Fire Claw Gorilla, unleash!

The energy becomes the Fire Claw Gorilla. Kevin jumps up and into it. The Fire Claw Gorilla then starts to beat its chest. Claw Beast energy goes over Toni's body.

TONI

Ice Claw Penguin, unleash!

The energy becomes the Ice Claw Penguin. Toni jumps up and into it. A hover board flies toward the Ice Claw Penguin, and it jumps onto the board. Claw Beast energy goes over Jorge's body.

JORGE

Metal Claw Gazelle, unleash!

The energy becomes the Metal Claw Gazelle. Jorge jumps up and into it. Abutok and Uwagak face the Claw Beasts, which are now headed their way.

TONI

Ice Line!

The Ice Claw Penguin flies by and creates a line of ice in mid air that the Fire Claw Gorilla grabs onto and uses to go over to Abutok. Inside of the Fire Claw Gorilla, Kevin stands behind a podium with an energy orb on it.

KEVIN

Take this!

Kevin performs an uppercut over the orb. Outside the Fire Claw Gorilla starts to strike Abutok several times with its fists. The Metal Claw Gazelle speeds up to Uwagak and gives him a head butt. The Metal Claw Gazelle then starts to strike Uwagak a few times with its legs. The Fire Claw Gorilla punches Abutok a few more times, while the Metal Claw Gazelle turns around and kicks Uwagak a few times with its hind legs. Abutok and Uwagak fall back a little, but both manage to strike the Fire Claw Gorilla, and Metal Claw Gazelle with their staffs. The Fire Claw Gorilla and Metal Claw Gazelle get up as the Ice Claw Penguin swoops in.

ABUTOK AND UWAGAK

Blast Strike!

A pale red glow goes over Abutok and Uwagak, and they cross their staffs and fire numerous shots at the Ice Claw Penguin. The Ice Claw Penguin however manages to dodge the shots, and flies over to Abutok and Uwagak and hits them a few times with the board. Inside of the Metal Claw Gazelle, Jorge stands behind an energy orb podium.

JORGE

Toni, over here!

The podium lowers to half of its height as Jorge turns around and kicks his right foot behind himself over the orb. Outside the Ice Claw Penguin comes up to the Metal Claw Gazelle as it turns around, and kicks the Ice Claw Penguin's board with its hind legs. The Ice Claw Penguin starts to go flying at a fast speed toward Abutok and Uwagak. Inside of the Fire Claw Gorilla Kevin beats his chest over his orb.

KEVIN

Beat Tunnel!

Outside the Fire Claw Gorilla beats its chest creating a tunnel that the Ice Claw Penguin enters and starts to ride in. The Ice Claw Penguin travels through the tunnel and strikes Abutok and Uwagak with the board knocking them down. The Ice Claw Penguin then goes over to the Fire Claw Gorilla and Metal Claw Gazelle.

KEVIN

Feral Tiger! Hydro Shark!

The Fire Claw Gorilla beats its chest releasing Claw Beast energy that summons the Feral Tiger, and Hydro Shark.

TONI

Feral Cheetah! Warrior Elephant!

The Ice Claw Penguin spins around releasing Claw Beast energy that summons the Feral Cheetah, and Warrior Elephant.

JORGE

Feral Jaguar! Nocturnal bat!

The Metal Claw Gazelle raises its front legs releasing Claw Beast energy that summons the Feral Jaguar and Nocturnal Bat. All nine Primal Beasts charge toward Abutok and Uwagak.

KEVIN, JORGE, AND TONI

Primal Beast...Hydra Strike!

Abutok and Uwagak try to fire energy at the Primal Beasts, but all nine Primal Beasts fire their own energy that destroys Abutok and Uwagak's shots, as well Uwagak. Abutok stumbles forward, and stands upright.

ABUTOK

Uwagak give me your power!

Abutok absorbs the remnants of Uwagak's power, and fires it through the horn on his right shoulder. The energy hits the Primal Beasts causing all but the Claw Beasts to disappear. Inside of the Ice Claw Penguin, Toni stands behind an energy orb podium.

TONI

So what are we going to do now?

Inside of the Metal Claw Gazelle, Jorge is still behind his podium.

JORGE

Well there's only one thing left to do.

Inside of the Fire Claw Gorilla, Kevin is still behind his podium.

KEVIN

It's time to combine the Claw Beasts.

KEVIN, JORGE, AND TONI

Claw Beasts combine!

Outside the Claw Beasts combine.

KEVIN, JORGE AND TONI

Tri Claw Megazord, ready to strike!

The Tri Claw Megazord and Abutok face each other. Abutok fires another blast from his shoulder horn, but it does not do any damage to the Tri Claw Megazord. Abutok then charges at the Tri Claw Megazord, but the Tri Claw Megazord starts to give Abutok a series of punches that not only hit Abutok, but also destroy some of the nearby rock formations. The Tri Claw Megazord gives Abutok a hard punch that sends him flying back into a cliff making an indent. Abutok falls out of the indent. Inside of the Tri Claw Megazord, Kevin, Jorge, and Toni all perform a punch over their energy orbs with their right fists, followed by another punch with their left fists.

KEVIN, JORGE AND TONI

Flame Punch Strike!

Outside the Tri Claw Megazord starts to spin its arms around, which gathers fire over its fists. The Tri Claw Megazord strikes Abutok numerous times with its enflamed fists causing Abutok to crumble a little. The Tri Claw Megazord then gives what is the rest of Abutok one last strike, which not only destroys Abutok's remains, but also creates a fairly large crater in the ground.

FADE OUT.

EXT. ANOTHER PART OF THE QUARRY NEAR A CLIFF - DAY

Master Chong and Ka-rah Khal charge at each other, and when they near each other they both launch series of punches on one another, which causes both of them to fall back. Orange colored energy gathers over both of their bodies.

MASTER CHONG AND KA-RAH KHAL
Primal Beast...Feral Lynx! Claw Strike!

The energy over Master Chong and Ka-rah Khal's bodies takes the form of two lynxes. The lynxes then charge at each other and swipe their right paws at each other, causing each other to disappear.

MASTER CHONG
I don't know why you wanted to do this.
We're both pretty evenly matched.

KA-RAH KHAL
Then this will be a true test of who is the better fighter.

MASTER CHONG
But we've been at this for hours now.
You look fairly tired, and I was never taught to take advantage of an opponent's weakness.

KA-RAH KHAL
Then why did you take your chances with any openings that I left you?

MASTER CHONG
Because you allowed me to have those, whether you meant to or not.

KA-RAH KHAL
It seems I taught you well. Why don't we just end this now Chong, and you can join my side?

MASTER CHONG
I know that the good man who was once my master must still be inside of you somewhere. I can feel it.

KA-RAH KHAL
But I am still your master, Chong.

MASTER CHONG

No you're not. The man who was David Li, my master, more or less died when he became what you are now. You may be many things Ka-rah Khal but you are not my master.

KA-RAH KHAL

Funny you mention what happened with your master, because the exact same thing is about to happen to you.

MASTER CHONG

Then so be it. When this is over, one shall stand one shall fall.

Ka-rah Khal charges at Master Chong, as energy starts to gather over his body. Energy also gathers over Master Chong's body. Ka-rah Khal meets up with Master Chong and they both start to give each other a series of punches and kicks, which ultimately leads to Ka-rah Khal knocking Master Chong to the ground. The energy on Ka-rah Khal's body disappears, but Master Chong's energy still remains.

KA-RAH KHAL

It's over Chong.

MASTER CHONG

NEVER!

Master Chong gives Ka-rah Khal a hard uppercut with his right fist, which knocks Ka-rah Khal back several feet. The energy over Master Chong's body remains.

MASTER CHONG

Feral Lynx! Pounce Strike!

Master Chong unleashes the Feral Lynx again, and it pounces on Ka-rah Khal, causing Ka-rah Khal to fly back over the edge of the cliff. Kevin, Jorge, and Toni (still morphed in Claw Form) come up to Master Chong. Master Chong takes note at their new appearance.

MASTER CHONG

These forms, how-?

KEVIN

We learned the power of the Claw Beasts.

TONI

So we got new suits.

JORGE

So how'd it go with Ka-rah Khal?

MASTER CHONG

Given that I just forced him off of the edge of that cliff, I'd say I won.

Master Chong, Kevin, Jorge, and Toni walk over to the edge of the cliff, and look down noting the far distance to the bottom.

KEVIN

Think he survived?

MASTER CHONG

I don't think anything could've survived that kind of a fall.

Master Chong, Kevin, Jorge, and Toni start to walk away from the edge, just as one of Ka-rah Khal's hands comes over it. They all turn around again to see Ka-rah Khal struggling to hang onto the edge of the cliff with both of his hands.

KA-RAH KHAL

Please Chong, grant me mercy. Help your former master over the edge of this?

MASTER CHONG

So let me get this straight, you who are without mercy, now begs for it? And I thought I made myself clear, you are no longer my master.

Anme appears at the edge of the cliff, and looks down at Ka-rah Khal.

KA-RAH KHAL

Please Anme, help your master up.

ANME

And why should I?

KA-RAH KHAL

I'm your master.

ANME

For once I'm with Chong on something. You are not my master.

A sinister smirk goes over Anme's face. Ka-rah Khal notices.

KA-RAH KHAL
What are you going to do?

ANME (sarcastically) Oh how it pains me to do this!

Anme starts to kick at Ka-rah Khal's hands.

KA-RAH KHAL
But I still live.

ANME
Wanna bet?

Anme continues to Ka-rah Khal's hands, until Ka-rah Khal finally loses his grasp, and falls down.

KA-RAH KHAL
(screaming) ANME!!!!

Ka-rah Khal's screams continue to be heard as he falls, and a dark red colored energy starts to rise. Anme extends his right hand and captures the energy turning it into a ball.

ANME
Well I did what I came here to do.

TONI
So you just-

Anme smirks again, and nods.

ANME
Well I'll be seeing you Rangers, and next time you won't be so lucky.

Anme disappears with the energy.

JORGE
Whatever Starscream.

FADE OUT.

FADE IN:

INT. THE TRIBULATION ARENA - TIME UNKNOWN

Anme appears in the arena. FLAMOUCIA comes up to him.

FLAMOUCIA
Where's Ka-rah Khal?

ANME
Chong finished him off, but Ka-rah Khal did leave us his own personal scream energy so that we can in fact allow the Three to cross over into the rift.

An unsure look goes over Flamouca's face.

FLAMOUCIA
(somewhat sarcastically) Right.

ANME
Begin preparations for the Three's coming.

INT. THE MARTIAL ARTS STUDIO - DAY

Jack, Sam (dressed normally), Sharky, Stephen, Derek, and Lily all stand around, while Michelle paces around a little.

JACK
Michelle will you cut that out?

SHARKY
Yeah, you're making us all a little nervous.

MICHELLE
Is it my fault that I actually care about my brother?

SAM
We all know you're worried about Bruce, but I'm sure he'll be fine.

Master Chong walks into the studio. Michelle runs over to him and wraps her arms around him for a big hug.

MASTER CHONG
I'm fine Michelle. And I know you were probably concerned about me, but what about that whole "twin thing" you mentioned yesterday.

Michelle lets go of Master Chong.

MICHELLE

I hate it when you're right.

Kevin, Jorge, and Toni (all now unmorphed) walk into the studio.

STEPHEN

And there they are.

DEREK

You were all amazing out there.

LILY

But there's something the three of us have been wondering.

JORGE

What?

STEPHEN

How were the three of you able to make the Claw Beasts so effective when the three of us couldn't do it?

LILY

And we've been practicing with the Claw Beasts for years.

JACK

I think the rest of us know that answer.

SAM

That's right.

SHARKY

And frankly it's a simple one.

STEPHEN

What is it?

MASTER CHONG

The difference between you, Derek, and Lily Stephen, and the three of them is the fact that they're something the three of you never were. A team.

MICHELLE

And as a team they worked together and accomplished a spectacular feat.

MASTER CHONG

I'm surprised that you didn't think about this sooner Derek.

DEREK

Well maybe I suffered one too many blows to the head while playing football.

MASTER CHONG

Now Kevin, Jorge, Toni, there's something I want the three of you to keep in mind with this new form of yours.

KEVIN

What is it?

MASTER CHONG

Even though you have this new power, and Ka-rah Khal is no more, don't get cocky. The worst has probably yet to come.
